HARD FIGHTING BY INSURGENTS

City of San Domingo Being Bombarded by Rebels.

ATTACK IS RESISTED

Government Forts Make Vigorous Defense—Cruiser Baltimore to Leave Harbor.

FRENCH GUARDS ARE LANDED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

San Domingo, Nov. 20.—The French cruiser Jurien de la Graviere arrived here today and landed guards for the protection of the consulate. Severe fighting has begun. The insurgents are bombarding the town and their attack is being vigorously resisted by the forts.

The United States cruiser Baltimore will be compelled to leave tomorrow and another American warship is anxiously expected. Fighting continues to the south, but the results so far as known are favorable to the government.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—A report to the state department from United States Minister Powell at San Domingo furnished the first official explanation of the beginning of the existing rebellion in the island. It is stated that Gen. Morales, governor of Puerto Plata, became disgruntled because he was refused a cabinet position by President Wos-y-Gil and putting himself in communication with Jiminez started the revolution, turning the government of the town over to the Jiminez interests.

Minister Powell also reports that the Dominican officers entered the French legation in San Domingo and forcibly removed the refugees.

GOMPERS TO BE OPPOSED FOR RETURN TO OFFICE

Socialists Whom He Attacked to Have Candidate for Federation President.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BOSTON, Nov. 20.—Samuel Gompers will be opposed for the presidency of the American Federation of Labor when that organization elects officers tomorrow. The Socialistic element in the convention held caucuses during the noon recess today and decided to nominate Delegate Ernest Kreft of Philadelphia Typographical union as a candidate for the presidency of the federation.

The speech of President Gompers in opposition to Socialism has aroused considerable feeling among the Socialist delegates, and determined efforts will be made tomorrow to elect one of their own number as president of the federation. The feature of the proceedings today, the eleventh day of the convention, was the acceptance of the report of the committee on executive council's report on the brewery workers throughout. The committee's report recommends that the Cincinnati agreement, so called, be reaffirmed, and this was done by a vote of 7,973 to 4,469.

Vice President Duncan stated that President Roosevelt had responded to the appeal of the federation, repeatedly made to many presidents, and has pardoned Ephraim W. Clark, who has been serving a life sentence for murder as one of the schooner Jefferson Borden mutineers. The announcement was greeted with applause and a vote of thanks was ordered to be telegraphed to the president and congratulations to Clark.

The convention held an evening session in order to reach a final adjournment tomorrow night.

MARY FAMILTON DIDN'T KNOW SHE WAS MARRIED

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Mary Familton, 20 years old, was arraigned in the Long Island City police court today on the complaint of Frank Kirkman, Jr., to whom she was married 24 hours before she married Edward J. Roach, an enlisted man in the hospital corps. The girl said she had married Kirkman because he threatened to kill her if she did not. She also said that she did not think that she was really married to Kirkman, as he had forced her to undergo the ceremony. Roach says that he believes her story. She was held for trial.

MILLER AND JOHNS FREE

Are Again Acquitted of Conspiracy to Defraud Uncle Sam.

RESULT IS POPULAR

Defendants Weep Like Children and Are Overwhelmed With Congratulations.

DISAGREEMENT LOOKED FOR

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Cincinnati, Nov. 20.—D. V. Miller of Terre Haute and Joseph M. Johns of Rockville, Ind., were tonight acquitted of the charge of conspiracy to extort a bribe from John J. Ryan, made by the postoffice department.

The verdict was received by the crowd with demonstrations that could not be suppressed by the court officers. As soon as court was adjourned and Judge Albert C. Thompson had retired, pandemonium broke loose among the jollifying friends of the defendants. Miller and Johns and their attorneys were overwhelmed and wept like children as they did so. Mrs. Johns was the only woman present when the verdict was rendered. She was overcome with joy.

Chief Postoffice Inspector Cochran, Mr. Robb, assistant attorney general for the postoffice department, and others from Washington who had assisted District Attorney McPherson and Assistant Moulinier and Darby in the prosecution, left for the east before the verdict was rendered, as did Attorney Spaans of Indianapolis and others from Indiana, but most of the contingents from Terre Haute and Rockville remained for the shouting that followed the verdict. Among the cries of the jollifiers was that of "Where is John J. Ryan?" Ryan, as witness for the prosecution, had been the central figure during the two long trials, but he was not present tonight.

The present trial has continued since last Monday morning. The jury retired shortly before 3 p. m. and rendered its verdict after deliberating six hours. It is understood that a majority this time was for acquittal from the start, but that it took some time to go over all the documents that had been submitted in evidence before a unanimous verdict was reached. It is understood that doubt was expressed as to Miller's connection with the transactions between Johns and Ryan. The charge of Judge Thompson during the afternoon occupied an hour in its delivery, and was very strong.

Considering the charge to the jury the verdict was a surprise, as the general prediction was that the jury would again be unable to agree on a verdict. The federal officials acknowledge their disappointment in the outcome, but express some satisfaction in a definite result. The government officials state that this case was not like any of the other postal cases that are pending, as this case simply dealt with the action of Miller when he was an assistant attorney in the postoffice department.

HATRED OF PRUSSIANS GROWING AMONG POLES

Hold Meetings Across Border in Austria and There Protest Against Tyranny.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—The excitement and hatred of the Poles against Prussia is rapidly increasing and the Nationalists have, during the sickness of the emperor, carried on a violent agitation against the Germans in all parts of Silesia. As they did not dare to go as far as they might want to on Prussian territory, a number of meetings have been held across the frontier on territory belonging to Austria, and in the town of Nuseidorf, a few miles from the boundary line between the two countries, a Polish national school was recently dedicated in the presence of hundreds of prominent Nationalists. One of the acts on the program was the recitation by a young girl of a poem in Polish entitled "How the Prussians Torture the Children of Poland." The poem was from beginning to end a series of insults to the kaiser and the Prussian government.

The kaiser had personally ordered that the Prussian minister of foreign affairs call the attention of the Austrian government to what passed at Nuseidorf and asked that the guilty persons be punished.

CLAIRTON FURNISHES LARGE BILLET SUPPLY

Pittsburgh Steel Company's Contract Is Being Filled by the Independent Company, After an Interesting Dispute in Billet Pool.

The Pittsburgh Steel Company's billet contract is being filled by the Clairton Steel Company. This announcement contains much significance to those who have been watching the events following the failure of the United States Steel Corporation to carry out the agreement to take over a half interest in the Clairton Steel Company.

The story of the deal, told on the authority of several persons familiar with the transaction, is that when the plan had been practically brought to a conclusion for the sale of the half interest of the Clairton to the Steel Corporation, the billet contract of the Pittsburgh Steel Company, was taken by the Steel Corporation, the expectation being that the Clairton plant would turn out these billets. When the deal fell through the order did not go to Clairton, but to the Carnegie Steel Company.

Shortly afterward a meeting of the billet pool was called, but it is stated the Clairton Steel Company was not represented at that meeting. Inquiry developed the fact that this company did not believe that the taking of the contract by the Steel Corporation under the circumstances was in line with the methods to be followed by members of a pool. Before the latest meeting of the pool in New York the United States Steel Corporation relinquished its contract with the Pittsburgh Steel Company and that concern has taken the surplus product of the Clairton plant, said to aggregate nearly 145,000 tons. It was recognized that the membership of the big concern up the Monongahela river was essential to the continuance of the pool and its point was won.

At the meeting in New York last week several new members joined the billet pool.

HANNA TALKS ON SHIP SUBSIDY

Ohio's Senator Tells Naval Architects the Issue Is Not Dead.

PROPHECY FOR THE FUTURE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Nov. 20.—At the meeting of the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers in this city a resolution was adopted opposing pending legislation for the adoption of the metric system in the departments of the federal government. In the evening, at Delmonico's, the annual banquet was held.

At the guests' table were Rear Admiral Bowles, president of the society; Clement A. Griscom, the retiring president, United States Senator Hanna, who responded to the toast "The Merchant Marine and Subsidy;" Rear Admiral Barker, who spoke on the toast "The Navy;" Rear Admiral Rae, whose toast was "Marine Engineering;" R. A. Post of the Newport News Shipbuilding Company; R. C. Ravenport from Cramp's shipyards; W. J. Baxter, Col. H. W. Thompson, Lewis Nixon, Commodore Charles H. Loring and many others well known in naval and shipbuilding circles.

A letter of regret was read from President Roosevelt. In introducing Senator Hanna President Bowles said the people of the United States looked to Mr. Hanna more than to any other one man to help in establishing America's merchant marine. He spoke of the development of inland commerce, and said he had seen the vessels of our inland waterways grow from little boats of 500 tons to ships of 9,000 tons.

"And," added Senator Hanna, "with the cheapest transportation in the world and at a profit of 75 cents a ton." Senator Hanna then referred to the Ohio campaign, which "has just ended." The senator declared that during that campaign he made the shipping bill an issue and everywhere it was well received.

"I did this," he said, "that the public might know the bill was not dead. I looked upon it as an educational campaign. The farmers of the west do not know their interests in this measure. I have never met a man who, when his interests in this measure was explained to him carefully, did not admit his mistake. The charge was made against me by the opposition in Ohio that I supported this bill. I told my constituents that if they sent me back to the senate I would try again to pass the shipping bill, and that I would keep on trying until I got it through.

"One of the most important things we need today," he continued, "is an auxiliary to our navy. Those of us who had experience in the Spanish war discovered this. Our farmers did not know or appreciate our need in this direction. In your educational campaign let me say the senate is all right. Begin on the house."

BEAUMONT, TEX., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—It is stated that there is to be a general consolidation of the larger oil companies now operating in the Beaumont and Sour Lake oil fields. The transaction also involves the formation of a holding company. John W. Gates is the prime mover in the scheme. He is now in Texas.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Nov. 20.—Panhandle passenger train No. 3, westbound, while going at high speed tonight, ran down two men who were walking on the tracks. Both are strangers, but from papers in their pockets they are thought to be George K. Wood, and J. E. Wood of New York city.

FREIGHT REDUCTION WILL INCLUDE RAILS

Manufacturers Persuade Railroads to Make an Additional Concession.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Freight rates on steel rails for export will be lowered. The cut will be the same as that ordered Thursday by traffic officials of the railroads in the trunk line and Central Traffic associations, that is 33 1-3 per cent of the present tariff. The cut ordered Thursday applied only to the "special iron and steel tariffs," which did not include rails.

As soon as it was learned by the officials of the rail manufacturing companies that the reductions authorized Thursday did not include rails, negotiations were at once opened with the traffic managers, as the expectation before Thursday's meeting had been that if any reductions were granted it would apply to rails as well as to "articles in carload lots," billets and pig iron. Replies received favored a reduction.

Estimates made by rail manufacturers indicate that they can place 750,000 tons of rails abroad if a 33 1-3 reduction in rails should be made by the railroads. It was stated that the matter of reducing the freight rates was entirely independent of the effort on the part of the railroads to obtain a cut in the schedule price of steel rails.

At a meeting to be held during the second week of December, the rail committees of the Central Traffic and Trunk Line associations will consider an adjustment of the domestic rates on rails. No request has been made of a general reduction in domestic rates on steel.

Democratic Senate Caucus Votes to Consider Cuban Bill on Merits.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Democratic senators at a caucus held this afternoon decided to consider the Cuban bill on its merits and confine the discussion to the bill itself without bringing in collateral questions. This means that no tariff amendments will be offered and that the tariff question will not be discussed.

The conclusion was reached at the end of quite a conference. The session was said to have been quite harmonious and the decision reached was practically unanimous. It was stated after the conference that the Democrats want it understood that in reaching this agreement they have not abandoned the fight on the tariff, but that they believe they can reach the tariff in some other way.

The attitude of the Democrats means early action on the Cuban bill and the prospects are for final adjournment of the extra session on Wednesday with an agreement to vote after a week of debate in the regular session if the Republicanns make the minority such a proposition.

AMERICAN WARSHIPS LEAVE TURKISH WATERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Rear Admiral Cotton, commanding the European station, has been authorized to leave Beirut with the flagship Brooklyn and the cruiser San Francisco and is expected to sail in a few days for a cruise in the Mediterranean preparatory to coming to the United States to take part in the naval maneuvers in the Caribbean about the end of December.

Dietrich Starts for Nebraska.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—United States Senator Charles H. Deitrich will start for Omaha tomorrow evening to surrender to authorities in that city because of his indictment on a charge of conspiracy in connection with postoffice patronage. Senator Deitrich reiterated tonight the assertion that he would demand an immediate hearing.

MAN ASSAULTED, TIED AND ROBBED

Joseph F. Challoner, Attacked at Night by Footpads, Rolls and Crawls to a House.

WAS VISITING NEAR BRINTON

Joseph F. Challoner of No. 4115 Butler street is at his home in a serious condition from an assault by highwaymen. Several of his teeth were knocked out, his scalp was cut and his body is all over bruises from the beating and kicking he received. The assault occurred at a lonely spot near the Oak Hill bridge, near Brinton, at 8 o'clock Thursday night.

Challoner left home to visit friends on the outskirts of Brinton. He got off the car at the Oak Hill end of the footbridge crossing the railroad tracks, to take a short cut to his friend's house. A fairly well-dressed young man accosted him, asking him if he was going up the hill. Challoner hurried on, and the stranger, with a laugh, followed him leisurely. Challoner turned to look back at him and on facing about heard the command, "Hands up!" and found himself looking into the muzzles of two revolvers in the hands of two men. Just then the man following him ran up and dealt him a blow on the head with some instrument, felling him to the ground. Then the three men beat and kicked him, rifled his pockets, took his gold watch and chain, a small sum of money, a diamond stick pin and two gold rings from his fingers.

Challoner lost consciousness, and when he awoke he was bound hand and foot with ropes. For an hour his cries for assistance were unheard or unheeded, and finally he managed to crawl and roll about 350 yards to the nearest house. The inmates took him in, unbound him and gave him stimulants. His friends at Brinton were notified and yesterday morning he was taken home.

No flames issued from the theater until the firemen reached the alley in the rear of the theater and knocked in the door. They had not been there five minutes when they were warned by some men from the front of the building to escape, and they were dragging out their hose when the roof and rear wall came down, catching Chief Burckhalter, Ziegler, Douglass and Walter in its descent.

Meanwhile those sleeping in the theater building had difficulty in escaping with their lives. Attorney A. T. Black, who had an elegantly furnished suite of rooms, was awakened by the explosion and was almost strangled before he escaped. Panic reigned among the guests of the Central hotel.

KELLY TESTIFIES IN EXTRADITION HEARING

Alleged Ferguson Murderers Listen to Recital Indifferently—Pittsburgh Detectives Pleased With Scotland Yard's Courtesy.

[From a Staff Correspondent.]
[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Milovar Patrovic and Hilovar Kovovic, the two Croats accused of the murder of Contractor Samuel T. Ferguson near Washington, Pa., and arrested at Southampton from a steamship on a message cabled from Pittsburgh, were arraigned in a Bow street police court today before Magistrate Fenwick. The Croats are traveling under the names of Tepenas and Koboar, and deny their identity with the Ferguson murderers.

Thomas A. McQuaide, superintendent of detectives of Pittsburgh, and Richard Kelly, one of his men, were in the court. Kelly was the only witness examined. He testified to investigating the crime on the day following the murder, described the scene and the condition of the body of Ferguson, and told of his visits to Ferguson's bookkeeper, Martin, at the hospital, Martin having been wounded by the dynamite that killed his employer. During Kelly's recital the prisoners stood in the dock, maintaining stolid indifference.

The only Croatian interpreter available in London cannot speak English, so a German interpreter was secured. He translated Kelly's testimony into German. Tepenac followed the interpretation closely and never changed his expression, while Koboar seemed indifferently interested.

As the prisoners are not being tried for murder they have no counsel. Extradition depends upon the testimony of the Pittsburgh detectives, but failure to secure the prisoners is not anticipated. The officers are sure of their men and the Scotland Yards officers say the case seems clear. Kelly's testimony was unfinished when court adjourned until 3 p. m. tomorrow. The proceedings are slow because of the time taken to translate the evidence to the prisoners.

McQuaide and Kelly are delighted with the courtesy of Scotland Yard.

BLOOD ALONE WILL SUFFICE

Colombian Leader Says Boer War Will Be Repeated.

MAKES LAST APPEAL

Offers to Move Capital to Panama and Concede All Demands to Preserve Union.

IS GOING TO WASHINGTON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

Colon, Nov. 20.—Gen. Reyes, the distinguished Colombian soldier, who came to the Isthmus on a peace mission representing his government, made a statement of the situation tonight. He said:

"The day I left Bogota, which was on the 11th inst., United States Minister Beaupre and Secretary of Legation Snyder were well, though a little anxious. I assured your minister that he was in no danger, and today I am able to give the same assurance. At the time I left Mr. Beaupre was preparing to go down the river.

"This morning Admiral Coghlan informed me officially that the United States government would prevent the landing of Colombian troops on any part of the isthmus. I promised Admiral Coghlan that Colombia would not take such action until I reached Washington, whither I am proceeding via Port Limon and New Orleans.

"I also told Admiral Coghlan that if my efforts at Washington failed to bring about some arrangement concerning the present situation on the isthmus satisfactory to Colombia the United States would have to fight the entire Colombian people and that it would be a second Boer war.

"I am going to Washington for the purpose of doing my utmost to amicably arrange affairs.

Situation Is Serious.

"Colombia is in desperation. I doubt if the Washington government or President Roosevelt, for whom I have the highest respect, realizes the seriousness of establishing this precedent. The large German colony in Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, is said to be inclining to a revolutionary movement for independence which the success of Panama will stimulate.

"The government of Colombia is receiving the sympathy of all South America, which is fearful of further American territorial aggrandizement in this direction.

"I may propose in Washington a plan contemplating the re-entrance of Panama into the Colombian union and the moving of the Colombian capital to Panama City. I am sure that this idea will receive the support of all Colombians.

"I do not just know what my course of action will be but I am going to Washington in the interests of Colombia and of civilization."

Asked whether Colombian troops could reach the isthmus by land Gen. Reyes answered:

Can Raise 100,000 Thousand Men.

"Yes, I can get 100,000 men, build roads, and if it were not for the Americans, could subdue the isthmus in a fortnight. I would rather die for the honor and in the defense of the integrity of my country than sit with hands folded and see her lose the isthmus. I will do all I can at Washington to effect a diplomatic arrangement if such be possible. I know the sentiments of my countrymen."

Gen. Reyes today sent a cablegram to Bogota advising his government that it was impossible to reach any agreement with the government of Panama, and hence, that Colombia's relations with that government were severed, and that he, accompanied by the other commissioners, was proceeding to Washington to fulfill his mission.

Questioned as to the rumor that the departments of Cauca and Antioquia were anxious to join the republic of Panama, Gen. Reyes said:

"The report of dissatisfaction in these departments is not only untrue, but I am able to say to you that the entire republic is united in its determination to restore the isthmus to the union."

Gen. Reyes, who was a candidate for the presidency of Colombia, issued a decree dated at Barranquilla, November 16, addressed to the members of the electoral college at Bogota, which said:

Renounces His Candidacy.

"Having accepted a military mission, empowered with all presidential faculties in almost all departments of the republic at a moment when my country is preparing for a presidential election, I deem it my duty to relinquish my candidacy. Hence I renounce it irrevocably, offering my services to my country in any other position."

Gen. Reyes' attitude Thursday night, as indicated by his remarks, was more or less bellicose. Though still bellicose, he is more hopeful today. He seems disturbed, however, by the rapid march of events in the United States, and is fearful that the congress may ratify the canal treaty with the new republic. He appears despondent over the general outlook for his mission.

The officials of the union have received information indicating that the men quit work voluntarily on receipt of the notice of a reduction in wages.

SUIT TO RECOVER MANY MILLIONS

Woman Endeavoring to Secure Valuable Ore Lands Owned by Husband.

MANY PECULIAR CONDITIONS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PAUL, Nov. 20.—Title to a tract of land near Hibbing, Minn., said to contain from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 worth of iron ore, is contested in the case of F. S. Kosmeri and others, respondents against Mrs. Katherine Mueller and others, appellants, which was argued today in the Minnesota supreme court.

The land was originally secured by Johani Mueller under the homestead law. Mueller gave a mortgage on the land to Kosmeri, a Catholic priest, in return for a loan. The mortgage was foreclosed after Mueller's death and Mrs. Katherine Mueller of Detroit, Mich., appeared to claim the land on the ground that she was the widow of Mueller and, that, since she had not consented to a mortgage, the title to the land vested in her.

The St. Louis county district court held that Mrs. Mueller was not the widow of Johani Mueller, and that Father Kosmeri was the lawful owner of the tract. Mrs. Mueller thereupon appealed to the supreme court.

Mrs. Mueller, who is 50 years old, says when she heard of Johani Mueller's death she went to Duluth to identify the body and found that the dead man's eyes had been grouged out and that his body had been mutilated in a manner to prevent her from identifying it. She charges also that other claimants to the tract, through deceit, secured from her letters which she wrote to her husband, together with the marriage license and certificate and that these records have been destroyed.

C. A. Severance of St. Paul, who argued the case of the respondents, maintained that the Johani Mueller of Detroit and the Johani Mueller of Duluth were different persons. He exhibited photographs of the men and called attention to the difference between the two persons.

BADLY WANTED SWINDLER CAUGHT IN PHILADELPHIA

Man Who Has Victimized Pittsburghers Is Now Under Arrest.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—With the capture of Edmond Kelley this morning at Ogontz by Policeman Carpenter of the Cheltenham police, Capt. Saddington asserts he has a swindler whose boast is that in less than 30 years he has made fully $900,000 of the unsuspecting heads of boarding schools throughout the United States.

Kelley, whose alias is George De Murphy, is wanted by the police of Pittsburgh for working his swindle in that city. His plan, it is alleged, was to put an advertisement in one of the monthly magazines for a fictitious school, the location of which was in some large city or its suburbs. Then he would go to reputable heads of well-known schools within a radius of several hundred miles and ask them to take care of a certain number of pupils for a time, while he finished the construction of the additional buildings needed to house them.

He would invariably make an offer to the schoolmasters that would leave a large margin of profit for them, and would secure as much money as possible, as an advance, before closing the bargain. The promised pupils would not arrive and the schoolmasters would never see their caller, who is able to speak many languages.

Several months ago Capt. Saddington received word from the police of Pittsburgh that Kelley was wanted there for working the swindle. The Pittsburgh authorities were notified. They are expected here tomorrow.

St. Louis Exposition Managers Will Have Show That Will Cost $50,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The Hon. Thomas H. Carter, president of the national commission of the Louisiana purchase exposition, today submitted to the president a statement showing the receipts and disbursements of the exposition to September 30, 1903. The total receipts to that date were $10386,935 58 and the disbursements $10,164,096 77.

The commissioner says the exposition officials have realized that if the commemoration of the Louisiana treaty centennial should fall short of being the most applauded of universal expositions, the failure would be a bitter disappointment to the whole country, as well as to themselves. Coveting the honor of fully satisfying this public demand, they have aimed to evolve an exposition that will cost $50,000,000 and pass into history as an educational factor of inestimable value in our future progress and our international relations.

PEACE OF EUROPE TO BE PRESERVED

Visit of Victor Emmanuel to England Will Promote Friendship.

KING AND QUEEN ADMIRED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The visit of the Italian sovereigns to England practically terminated tonight with a banquet to the monarchs and their suites in St. George's Hall, Windsor Castle. In spite of the fact that 86 persons were present, the banquet was a quiet and almost a family affair. There were no speeches.

In view of the announcement of the result of the conference yesterday between the Italian foreign minister, Signor Tittoni, and the British secretary of foreign affairs, Lord Lansdowne, it is generally conceded that the visit of their Italian majesties will subsequently aid the solidarity of the great powers and do much toward preserving mutual friendship in Western Europe.

The visit has been marked throughout by the cordiality of the English people toward the Italian sovereigns. Whenever they appeared in public, King Victor Emmanuel spoke in English, and all during the stay here made a markedly friendly impression on every one of the deputations whom he received in audience.

Queen Helena has been the object of general admiration, her personal beauty and kindliness closely corresponding to those traits of Queen Alexandra which have endeared her to the English people.

SELLING AGENCY PLAN FOR ALL WINDOW GLASS

Company Being Formed to Control 1,500 Pots in Addition to American Company.

The Manufacturers' Window Glass Company will be the name of the selling agency to have control of practically the entire output of the window glass factories of this country. It is expected to be in charge within a month. The American Window Glass Company and a number of the large concerns in the business have agreed to abide by the terms which make the formation of the selling agency possible. It is proposed that the owners of window glass factories having a total of 1,500 pots, exclusive of the American, shall take stock in the new concern on the basis of three shares of the capital stock of $100 a share for each pot controlled. This stock is to be paid for in cash or in glass at a price to be fixed by the manufacturers after its organization.

It is also stipulated that the Manufacturers' Company shall enter into agreements with the two window glass workers' associations binding them not to allow skilled men to work in the factories of manufacturers outside of the selling agency except at such times as the agency companies are working. An advance of 2½ per cent in wages is granted the workers.

To make this plan effective it must be finally settled within 30 days from November 13. A committee is now at work preparing the necessary articles, securing the charter and perfecting the legal end of the plan. The subscription blanks accompanied by an explanatory letter urging union in this plan have been sent to all the manufacturers by J. R. Johnston, president of the Johnston Window Glass Company of Hartford City, Ind.

The announcement was made by Secretary Johnson of the structural iron workers and a member of Parks' old union. Frank Buchanan, president of the International association, confirmed Johnson's statement. On November 30 a general meeting of the International association will be held and by that time it is expected the strike will be in full swing in all parts of the country and the central body will take general control.

FLURRY IN CALL MONEY.

New York Banks Find It Necessary to Gather in Outlying Cash.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—There was a flurry in the call money market today. Many of the banks their loans. The City bank called $6,000,000 and the Bank of Commerce $3,000,000.

Early in the afternoon when call money first loaned at 7 per cent, room traders turned to the bear side and offered stocks freely, causing some fractional declines from the high prices that had prevailed in the forenoon. The buying on this reaction was of the best character. Sterling exchange brokers say that the present strength of sterling exchange is due to continued investment buying of long bills in anticipation of heavy remittances on account of payment for the Panama canal.

COLOMBIANS FEARED AMERICAN MARINES

Commander of the Nashville Relates Thrilling Tale of Panama Revolt.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The navy department today made public reports of Commander John Hubbard, commanding the gunboat Nashville, on recent operations of the men under his command at Colon since the revolution on the Isthmus of Panama was started.

Under date of November 5 Commander Hubbard invites attention to the occurrences of Wednesday November 4, which, he says, "amounted practically to the making of war against the United States by the officers in command of the Colombian troops in Colon." He then says that on the afternoon of that day the United States consul informed him that he had received notice from the officer commanding the Colombian troops, Col. Torres, through the prefect of Colon, to the effect that if the Colombian officers, Gens. Tobal and Amaya, who had been seized in Panama on November 5 by the independents and held prisoners, were not released by 2 o'clock p. m. he (Torres) would open fire on the town of Colon and kill every United States citizen in the place.

Hubbard Acts Promptly.

Commander Hubbard advised that all United States citizens should take refuge in the shed of the Panama railroad and said he would land immediately a body of men with such extra arms for arming the citizens as the complement of the ship would permit. This was agreed to, and at 1:30 o'clock a party of 42 men under command of Lieutenant Commander Witsel, landed with directions to take the building referred to, put it into the best state of defense possible, and protect the lives of the citizens assembled there, but not to fire unless fired upon.

The report adds: "The women and children took refuge on the German steamer Marcomania and the Panama railroad steamer City of Washington, both ready to put out from the dock if necessary. The Nashville I got under way and patrolled with her along the water front, close in and ready to use either small arms or shrapnel fire. The Colombians surrounded the building of the railroad company almost immediately after we had taken possession and for about one and a half hours their attitude was most threatening, it being seemingly their purpose to provoke an attack. Happily our men were cool and steady, and while the tension was very great no shot was fired."

Was a Gross Outrage.

"I feel that I cannot sufficiently strongly represent to the department the grossness of this outrage, and the insult to our dignity, even apart from the savagery of the threat."

Commander Hubbard early on the morning of November 4 notified the railroad officials, the prefect of Colon and Col. Torres that he had prohibited the "transportation of troops in either direction in order to preserve the free and uninterrupted transit of the isthmus."

Commander Hubbard says he informed Col. Torres that "I had no interest in the affairs of either party; that my attitude was strictly neutral; that the troops of neither side should be transported, that my sole purpose in landing was to protect the lives and property of American citizens if threatened as they had been threatened, and to maintain the free and uninterrupted transit of the isthmus; and that purpose I should maintain by force if necessary."

The Orinoco left Colon just after the threat made by Col. Torres to open fire on the town and kill every United States citizen, and Commander Hubbard says he did not deem it expedient to detain her, as such action in the then state of affairs certainly would have precipitated a conflict on shore, which he was not prepared to meet.

PRESIDENT CONFERS WITH PANAMANIANS

Dr. Amador Presents Him With Small Flag of the New Republic.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—After conferences today at the White House and state department between Secretary Hay, Minister Varilla of the republic of Panama, and its commissioners, it was decided that the United States could accept the new Panama treaty if it were ratified by the existing or provisional government.

It is learned that Rear Admiral Walker's mission to Panama has really been to ascertain how much work the Panama canal people have done on the canal since the United States agreed to buy the property from the company. The agreement with the company is that the United States is to reimburse the company for the work done. Rear Admiral Walker will make a supplemental report on that matter by the time congress passes an act to provide for the construction of the canal, whether it be by amendment to the existing Spooner act or by some additional act repealing the Spooner act.

The president received the Panama commission this afternoon at the White House. The meeting was very cordial. Dr. Amador carried with him a small Panamanian flag which he presented to the president with the hope that he would wear it. The president at once pinned it on his coat and thanked Dr. Amador for the gift. The president congratulated the commission on having so able a diplomat as M. Bunau-Varilla to represent the republic at Washington.

COLOMBIAN LEADER ACCEPTS SITUATION

Peace Commissioners Land at Colon and Are Given an Ovation.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

COLON, Nov. 20.—The Panamanian commission conferred at length today with the Colombian commission, headed by General Reyes, which arrived here yesterday from Savanilla on the French steamer Canada. The Panamanians refused every overture, declaring their position to be irrevocable and declared they would not receive any further commissions from Colombia unless they recognized the republic of Panama.

The conference was continued informally until 3 o'clock in the afternoon when a document was drawn up and signed by all the commissioners setting forth the details of the conference. Gen. Holguin of the Colombian commission asked, finally, if the Colombians could do anything whatever to regain the isthmus and Senor Arias answered that it was decided and absolutely impossible. He, however, expressed the desire of the isthmians for close and friendly relations with Colombia.

The question of Colombia's recognition of the independence of Panama and Colombia's possible equity in the canal, railroad and other interests on the isthmus was not broached.

The Colombian commissioners asked permission to disembark for a promenade through the streets of Colon. The request was promptly granted. Then the Panamanian and Colombian commissioners left the Canada together and, arm in arm, walked to the end of the dock where 100 soldiers of the new republic formed in two lines and presented arms. The party then drove through Colon, unguarded, returning to the Canada after an hour. In every way the Colombian generals were treated as distinguished foreigners.

During the trip down the Magdalena river Gen. Reyes was everywhere received with enthusiasm. The people told him that they were ready and willing to enlist in a fight for the recovery of the isthmian territory. Gen. Reyes discouraged this warlike attitude, declaring it better to act through diplomatic channels, which he told the people was the purpose of his mission to the isthmus.

As Gen. Reyes walked along the dock in company with the Panama commissioners a Panamanian lieutenant approached him and saluting, asked for orders. The general laughingly turned to the Panama commissioners and then said to the officer:

"You should take orders from these gentlemen now."

RIVALRY IS KEEN AMONG HORSEMEN

Lilliputian Ponies Delight Juvenile Visitors at the Horse-show.

SPLENDID GOWNS ARE WORN

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—An attendance that rivaled in numbers and brilliance last night's great gathering at the horse show filled Madison Square garden tonight. There was but a sprinkling of grown-ups in the throng of children who gathered to watch the pony competitions, which occupied the whole of the morning session. Four ring stallions, looking wonderfully smart in white bridles and leading straps, opened the show, the blue ribbon being easily carried off by the Jordan entry, Dilham Prime Minister. Shrill cries of delight went up from the juvenile amateurs when four lilliputian pairs, hitched to wagons hardly larger than go-carts, trotted into the ring. The honor was carried off by Mrs. E. T. Hawley's Bressay of Pittsford and Aberdeen of Pittsford, the most diminutive of the lot, the second prize going to Thomas L. Watts' Montreal, aged 23 years, and Monte Carlo, aged 15, who, in spite of their years, were as spry as colts.

The afternoon session opened with another pony class of 10 under saddle, in which Mrs. John Gerken's Doncaster Model, ridden by Master B. F. Carman, easily bore off the blue ribbon.

The class for road teams brought out a keen struggle between W. H. Moore, Alfred Vanderbilt, John L. Wentz, L. L. Biddle and W. E. Woodend, the judges giving the blue ribbon to Mr. Biddle's team of solid bays.

In the class for road teams and appointments, and the quickest change of teams to be made in the ring to reproduce in some measure the conditions which obtain on the road, there was a whole lot of excitement. W. C. Moore's team made the most rapid change, but was defeated by that of W. E. Woodend, owing to the failure of a person to secure one of the traces.

In the polo pony class Tony Weller, admirably ridden by Allan Forbes, took the blue ribbon, the second prize going to Alfred Vanderbilt on Happy Days.

Many handsome gowns were worn tonight and the display of jewels was notable. Among them were Mrs. Benjamin Thaw of Pittsburgh—white Irish lace, the bodice embellished with many pearl ornaments; boa of sable and picture hat of blue velvet, trimmed with sable and forget-me-nots.

M. QUAD SUED FOR $50 BY MISS BILLINGS

Humorist Describes Parting from Young Woman He Had Befriended.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Charles B. Lewis, better-known as "M. Quad," was defendant today in an action brought by Miss Marie Billings to recover $50 alleged to be due her as salary. She had been, it was declared, his typewriter. Mr. Lewis, white haired, looked feeble, while Miss Billings presented a very dashing appearance.

When Mr. Lewis took the stand he told of his acquaintance with Miss Billings and declared he lent money to her and "acted like a father to her."

"Last month, after she and I returned from a trip to the country," he continued, "I called at the flat and asked her if she had her pencils sharpened for work. She replied that she wanted to hear no more of the infernal subject. I asked her if she had got a legacy; she said it was none of my business.

"'Kid,' I said to her, 'I guess the time has come when dad can put on his hat and go.'

"'Dad can go just as soon as he pleases,' she responded. I picked up my hat and went to the door. Turning around I said, 'Good bye, Kid.' She did not answer and I went out. That is the last I saw of her until she brought suit."

Judge Bennett reserved decision.

OBJECT TO BEING HEALTH OFFICERS

Allegheny County School Directors Want the Existing Law Repealed.

TEACHERS' SALARIES TOO LOW

Because country school boards have to be boards of health, there was a storm of disapproval at the first annual convention of Allegheny county school directors at Carnegie music hall yesterday. There were a number of rousing addresses denouncing conditions under which the boards are compelled to spend most of their time looking after the physical condition of the community. A motion was passed instructing delegates to the state convention to appeal to the next legislature to repeal the law.

J. N. White of Sewickley started the discussion, saying: "The law which makes our boards perform the duties of school directors and health officers at the same time is unjust and should not exist."

J. B. Stewart, depty state superintendent of schools, said: "Vaccination is a perplexing question and school directors should not be compelled to take care of smallpox cases, nor to pay expenses incident thereto out of the school fund."

There was considerable discussion also regarding proper salaries for teachers. The minimum salary for this state is now $35 per month. An effort is to be made to secure the passage of an act making the minimum $40.

Out of 700 directors in the county, about 80 were present. The new organization takes the place of the old County Directors' association. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, the Rev. J. A. Burnett of Wilkinsburg; first vice president, W. M. Burtt, Edgewood; second vice president, J. A. Anderson, Wilkinsburg; secretary and treasurer, J. A. McMillen, Upper St. Clair.

Delegates to the state convention were elected as follows: Dr. F. R. Stotler, Wilkinsburg; W. J. Steen, Collier township; J. D. Anderson, Wilkinsburg; J. A. McMillen, Upper St. Clair township; J. H. Gilmore, Penn township. The alternates were Robert Reiter, Plum township; E. J. Small, Braddock; G. W. Foster, Scott township, and J. N. White, Sewickley.

The convention concluded with a question box discussion which was conducted by Superintendent Hamilton. Among his answers were, "Local boards may introduce banking systems in schools, but there is no law governing the matter." They may supply funds for free kindergartens and night schools may be opened for four months each year.

WOULD INVITE CUBA TO BECOME A STATE

Senator Newlands Introduces Resolution to That Effect in Senate.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Senator Newlands, author of the resolution annexing Hawaii, today introduced a joint resolution inviting Cuba to become a state of the United States upon terms of equality with the state of the union. It provides that Porto Rico shall become a county or province of Cuba; that all present officers of Cuba shall retain their positions until their terms expire; that the $35,000,000 bonds of Cuba shall become the bonds of the state of Cuba with interest reduced to three per cent and two per cent to be applied to a sinking fund; that the present rural guard of Cuba shall be incorporated into the army of the United States; that the money in the Cuban treasury shall become the money of the state of Cuba.

The resolution closes with the following declaration: "That the foregoing resolutions are inspired not by a desire to annex forcibly or to assert sovereignty over the island of Cuba, or to exercise any form of compulsion, but solely by a regard for the interest of the two countries and a conviction that the interests of the states composing the federal union and Cuba are identical and that they can best be secured by a union under one form of government in which all shall be represented on equal terms and to be governed by equal and undiscriminating laws, ensuring freedom of trade and equality of right and privilege."

DR. EDWARD KOCH

At His Pittsburgh Office, 321 Penn Ave.

He will be here a short while demonstrating his new inhalation apparatus for breathing oily vapors into the lungs, combined with the Koch Tuberculine, the great remedy which kills the germs and the only remedy that has ever cured consumption.

The new tuberculine for asthma is also on exhibition at Dr. Koch's Pittsburgh office, No. 321 Penn avenue.

The doctor is always glad to talk with the afflicted and charges nothing for consultation and examination.

His reputation is too well known to need further comment. Many Pittsburgh people will tell what this wonderful treatment has done for them, and hundreds of testimonials are on file not only in Dr. Koch's Pittsburgh office, but in his other offices, which can be found in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, Chicago, Buffalo, Rochester, Cincinnati, Washington, Altoona and Erie, Pa.

This treatment has stood the test. At the International Tuberculosis Congress which met in London two years ago, the Professor Robert Koch "Tuberculine" was declared to be the only remedy for consumption. New treatments spring up constantly, but the Koch Inhalation Treatment is the only one which has gained and held its reputation.

Dr. Edward Koch has in this country under his direct supervision, seventeen associate physicians, who have charge of the various American institutions. The Koch Lung Cure is the largest incorporated medical company in the world.

A personal interview with this great physician may save your life. He will be just as pleased to talk with you whether you take treatment or not. His prices are within the reach of all and will be made to suit your circumstances. Do not wait until it is too late, as the best results can be secured during the early stages of the disease.

Dr. Koch's only Pittsburgh office is at 321 Penn avenue.

MORE GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE "TECH"

Intimation Out That There Will Be an Interesting Announcement Next Week.

DIRECTOR AT WORK HERE

There will be some good news from New York next week, it is hinted, in connection with the Carnegie Technical schools. Director Arthur A. Hamerschlag of the schools, who arrived in this city yesterday morning would not speak more definitely than to say that there will be some "good news." He would not say whether he had seen Mr. Carnegie.

Accompanied by Chairman William McConway of the technical schools committee of the institute board of trustees he visited the 32-acre site and went over it with the surveyors who are to make a topographical map of the ground.

"It's a fine site. The best in Pittsburgh, although it is very irregular," he said. "We cannot do much until it has been so mapped out that the architects know what they have to deal with. About half of the stakes are now in and the work is progressing rapidly."

The new head of the schools is flooded with applications for places.

"I guess there must be a thousand who want jobs," he said wearily yesterday. "There are also many who wish to enter the preliminary classes which have been discussed in the papers. The fact of the matter is that there is no decision yet in regard to classes, lectures or any other feature of the schools. I have not even made up my own mind in regard to the matter and the committee has reached no decision. Lectures have been discussed and there must be some sort of preliminary work, but it will be several months before it can be started. Lecturers or instructors must be secured.

"At present the business organization is taking all the time I can give the schools. We have secured a suite of rooms in the German National bank, at Sixth avenue and Wood street, on the fifth floor, and tomorrow morning these will be furnished. Tomorrow afternoon I expect to meet with the committee in charge of the schools and we will go over the plans at that meeting.

"If my business in New York permits, I shall remain here until Monday evening, but it may be necessary for me to go back tomorrow evening."

CITY ASKED FOR SITE FOR THE SOUTH SIDE BRANCH

Carnegie Library Board Will Erect a $60,000 Structure If Part of New Park Is Given.

At the meeting of the Carnegie library board of trustees yesterday afternoon it was decided to ask the city to give, as a site for the South Side branch, a portion of the block at South Twenty-second and Carson streets, bought recently for a public park. If this can be done, that section of the city will get a $60,000 instead of a $40,000 structure.

The matter was brought before the library board in the form of a report of the committee appointed last May to secure a new site for the South Side branch. The committee is composed of George A. Macbeth, J. F. Hudson and John T. Fox. Its appointment was made necessary by the many objections raised to the site originally purchased for the purpose. It was decided that the location would not do. The committee unanimously recommended that the building should be in the lower part of the South Side, and the report was adopted.

President W. N. Frew read a letter from Director E. M. Bigelow stating that the city had purchased property for a public park at South Twenty-second and Carson streets. It was decided to ask the city to give 120 by 190 feet of this land for the library site, as the location is the one most favored. It was also stated that the trustees had sold for $20,000, which was the price paid originally, the property secured for the library site, and that this amount in addition to the $40,000 set aside for the construction of the building would be available for the building alone if the site were granted by the city.

This amount will build on the South Side one of the handsomest and largest branch libraries in the city. It will be surpassed only by the East End branch, which supplies a much larger population, estimated at 125,000.

CONTROLS ITS OWN FUEL.

Pittsburgh Steel Company Interests Incorporate Monessen Coal & Coke Company.

By incorporating the Monessen Coal and Coke Company, which was granted a charter yesterday in Harrisburg, the Pittsburgh Steel Company interests form a corporation to take over its new coal land near its big Monessen plant. The capital of the new company is $150,000. Its directors are Wallace H. Rowe, Edwin Bindley, John Bindley, Emil Winter and Willis F. McCook.

A tract of about 250 acres within two miles of the Monessen works and lying between that town and Webster has been bought. It is underlaid with the Pittsburgh vein, having a seven-foot thickness. It has a frontage on both the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad and the Monongahela river. The ownership of the coal insures the company its own supply of fuel for many years to come.

STREET CAR MEN HOPEFUL.

No Strike Is Looked for and an Increase in Wages Is Expected.

A three hours' conference was held yesterday between the committee representing division No. 5 of the Amalgamated Association of Electric and Steam Railway Employes and the officials of the Pittsburgh Railways Company. Business Agent H. C. Williams, John Dooley, president; S. P. Reese, financial and corresponding secretary; Joseph Hughes, a member of the executive board, and J. J. Thorp represented the men.

The company is said to have granted some concessions and the employes also yielded several points. The company still refuses to sign an agreement.

Business Agent Williams feels sure the grievances can be adjusted without a strike. He is also confident the company will grant an increase in wages.

MOORE HAS A MAN PICKED.

Newberry Said He Would Not Have Position in Police Department.

Director Harry Moore of the department of public safety has been besieged with applicants for the position of assistant superintendent of police, which will be made vacant by the resignation of Thomas D. Malone on December 1. Director Moore has a man selected for the place and will appoint him on the first of the month. Fred W. Newberry was talked of as an applicant. When seen yesterday, he said:

"I would not have the position. My friendship for Superintendent McTighe has led some persons to think I am after the place. I know nothing about the police business, and futhermore, I do not care to become engaged in it."

ASSAULT IS CHARGED AGAINST ALDERMAN

Information charging assault and battery was filed against Alderman Harry Robinson of Bellevue before Alderman Groetzinger last night by Louis Fischer, a waiter at the Union restaurant, Frick building. It is alleged that Robinson assaulted the waiter while dining there and that in a rage he offered another waiter $50 to take Fischer outside so he could give him a trouncing. Samuel Robinson, the alderman's brother, is defendant in the case also. The brother was present at the time of the alleged trouble. The Robinsons gave bail for court.

PRETTY TEETH HAVE GONE AWAY

Their Possessor Was to Have Married Nebraska Widow Here Yesterday.

STORY TOLD TO DETECTIVES

"Pretty teeth" is the main feature of the description of a man the Pittsburgh detective force is seeking because of a tale that his disappointed bride-to-be unfolded to Acting Superintendent William Elmore yesterday. Mrs. Lorene Stephenson, a widow, of Beatrice, Neb., who has a son in O'Neil, Neb., is the disappointed bride. James H. Rodgers is the man to whom she was to have been married here yesterday, had he not disappeared and carelessly taken with him $250 of her money, leaving her only 42 cents with which to face the cold world, nearly 1,000 miles from Nebraska. Mrs. Stephenson was given accommodations last night at the Central station.

In her story to Elmore she said her husband died four years ago and while visiting her son at O'Neil, Neb., a few months ago she was introduced to Mr. Rodgers, a man of 48, reputed to be a wealthy mine owner of San Francisco and New York. He accompanied her on a visit to New Orleans and, as she found him a most entertaining gentleman with pretty teeth, when he proposed marriage she accepted him. His father had died at Albany, N. Y., he told her, and he had to go there to settle up an estate of $100,000 which was, however, hardly a marker to his mining property. After that he intended coming to Pittsburgh to buy mining machinery. Correspondence followed and finally it was arranged that they should meet here and be married November 18. Mrs. Stephenson arrived Wednesday and went to the Hotel Henry. He appeared Thursday afternoon, and told her he had been detained, so the wedding was postponed for a day. They went to the theater in the evening and then Mr. Rodgers acompanied her back to the hotel. As they walked along he inquired if she had any money, and she answered that about $250 out of $300 was left. For safe keeping he suggested he should have the money. This was agreeable. Then he said he would have to return to his hotel, which incidentally he did not name. Since that farewell Mrs. Stephenson has not seen him.

ARCHAEOLOGISTS NAME OFFICERS FOR SOCIETY

Annual Meeting of Pittsburgh Branch Held at Home of John B. Jackson.

Scientific, professional and society people gathered at the home of John B. Jackson, No. 8642 Penn avenue, to hear an address before the Archaeological Institute of America, Pittsburgh society, and the annual report of the officers. Although the body was chartered only last May, it now has a membership of 65, and at the meeting last night which preceded the speaking, $300 was voted to be sent the American institute. The study of archaeology in Pittsburgh is attracting scores of nonprofessional persons, and it is thought that within a short time the society here will top the list in membership. In order to stimulate a desire for such researches, a series of lectures has been arranged for the winter. The first of these will take place in the lecture room of the Carnegie institute on December 8. It will be by Prof. W. J. McGee, chief of the department of anthropology of the world's fair, on the subject, "Knife, Fire and Wheel in Early Art."

The speaker last evening was Prof. John Moffatt Mecklin of the chair of Greek, Washington and Jefferson college, who chose for his subject "Excavations in Crete." He told interestingly of the findings in Crete. After this light refreshments were served. There were about 65 in attendance.

Preceding the address the annual meeting of the society was held, which included the election of officers. All the officers were re-elected, as follows: President, John B. Jackson; vice presidents, Prof. William R. Crabbe, Dr. William J. Holland, the Hon. James D. Moffat, the Hon. H. K. Porter; secretary, Prof. Hamilton Ford Allen; treasurer, William A. Way.

Death Rate Fell Off in Pittsburgh.

There were 117 deaths in the city last week, as compared with 153 the previous week and 152 in the corresponding week last year. The principal causes were: Pneumonia 24, diphtheria 9, typhoid fever 5, violence 11. During the week there were reported 49 cases of smallpox, 55 of typhoid fever, 17 of scarlet fever and 41 of diphtheria.

Miners Nominate Officers.

The executive board of the United Mine Workers will meet next Tuesday to consider the nominations of officers for the next term.

The nominations closed yesterday and the board is to decide whether all the candidates are eligible. As soon as the list of nominees is compilled voting sheets will be sent out.

Cellar Door Company Chartered.

Pittsburghers incorporated at Dover, Del., yesterday the Automatic Cellar Door Company of this city. Its purpose stated in the charter is to acquire lands and buildings for the manufacture of an automatic cellar door. The incorporators are S. S. Adams, Jr., C. C. Pierce and Paul T. Kerns.

Arrest Grew Out of Mailed Letter.

Deputy United States Marshal W. M. Henry arrested Frank W. Bush at Brookville, yesterday, on a charge of mailing an improper letter to Mrs. William Demote, at the Brookville postoffice. Before Justice Walker at Brookfield, Bush gave bail for court.

HOME TESTING

A Sure and Easy Test on Coffee.

To decide the all important question of coffee, whether or not it is really the hidden cause of your physical ails and approaching fixed disease, one should make a test of 10 days by leaving off coffee entirely and using well made Postum Coffee.

If relief follows you may know to a certainty that coffee has been your vicious and killing enemy. Of course you can take it back to your heart again if you like to keep sick.

A lady says: "I had suffered with stomach trouble, nervousness and terrible sick headaches ever since I was a little child for my people were always great coffee drinkers and let us children have all we wanted. I got so I thought I could not live without coffee and I would not acknowledge that it was causing my suffering.

"Then I read so many articles about Postum that I decided to give it a fair trial. I had not used it two weeks in place of coffee until I began to feel like a different person. The headaches and nervousness disappeared and where I used to be sick two or three days out of a week while drinking coffee I am now well and strong and sturdy seven days a week, thanks to Postum.

"I had been using Postum three months and had never been sick a day when I thought I would experiment and see if it really was coffee that caused the trouble, so I began to drink coffee again and inside of a week I had an awful sick spell. I was so ill I was soon convinced that coffee was the cause of all my misery and I went back to Postum again in a hurry with the result that I was soon again well and strong and determined to use Postum the rest of my days and to leave coffee alone in the future." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Our New Nook for Books.

In Which There Are Many Evidences of Those Things Which Tend to Broaden the Thoughts Of Men and Women.

To say that we are highly pleased at the signal success of our Book Store would be putting the matter very mildly. We do not recall any department newly introduced that met with a more spontaneous reception. Small wonder, however, when one stops to consider the utter absence of cermonial methods used in this book nook—no counters, no hindrances, the books placed before you so they may be inspected satisfactorily, and above all, no importuning.

Today we introduce a novelty, viz., a demonstration sale in books. That is inexplainable in type. To understand it, take some moments from your time today and visit the book nook, street floor, near elevators, East Store, and see little Miss Marion Freebing officiate. She's only 5 years old.

A Trio of Specials in Walking Suits.

While we can sell you Walking Suits for very much less money, or for very much more money, as the case may be, the three numbers following are given to emphasize our highly satisfactory range of suits around popular prices. There's a piquancy about these new suits, just in and ready for your inspection this morning that is indescribable. There is something about them that has to be seen to understand their—well, their smartness, say:

At $25.00, a new line of Walking Suits, made of fine Scotch Tweeds and Zibelines, stylish double-breasted jackets, 24 inches long. Flat collar and cuffs of broadcloth, inlaid with silk, finished with novelty braid, and midget buttons; three large metal buttons down front; long epaulette shoulders, large coat sleeve; nine-gore skirt with double pleat at each gore.

At $25.00, Walking Suits in broken bar plaid suitings; three-quarter length, tight-fitting single-breasted coat, double-stitched welted seams, velvet collar, flare sleeves; coat entirely lined with a good quality of taffeta; 15-gore flare skirt, habit back, stitched to match coat.

At $30.00, Walking Suits of Panne Cheviot, brown, gray, blue; three-quarter coat, double-breasted blouse front; stitched band of material, piped and trimmed with taffeta around neck, and over shoulders. Facing of silk and braid; large sleeves pleated at elbow; straight cuffs; seven-gore skirt, side pleated, inverted pleat back.

Girls' Winter Coats, Underpriced.

The Misses' and Children's Department, second floor, West Store, has a collection of Winter Coats, in fine materials and fine finishes, that will be sold for reduced prices. Reason, not a complete size range.

Tan Covert Cape Coat, three-quarter length, velvet collar, sizes from 14, 16 and 18 years—for $15.00 instead of $20.00.

Pleated Coats of cheviot, blue and black, having belt and velvet collar for $20.00 instead of $27.00.

Buy Your Toys Now.

We'll hold any selection until the 24th of December, if you want them delivered so late. The suggestion for early choice is given for the very good reason that among the mechanical toys, especially, there is no possible opportunity to duplicate after they have been sold. All our mechanical toys were personally selected in Europe, and of course we could not get more over in time for Christmas.

While every day is Children's day in this Toyland, Basement, East Store, Saturday seems to be a special day. We like to have the children around. We like to see them enthused. No passports to Toyland required—just walk in main entrance, East Store, turn to your left and step down in less time than it takes to walk over to the elevator.

There are a few dolls that have become slightly hurt, just enough so for us to say half-price.

We are selling Parcheesi, the game that seems never to die out, for 65c; lots of new games, just out.

A Group of New Coats for Women.

Several new lines came in yesterday, among which we mention as particularly applicable to today, the following:

Are You Ready With Your Skates?

Youngsters and grown-ups these days don't have to wait until Jack Frost furnishes the icy surface—some scientific machinery and a few barrels of ammonia do the trick. Ice ready at Duquesne Garden next Wednesday. Are you ready with skates and the hockey stick and hockey puck?

In the basement, East Store, Hockey Skates, $1.00 a pair and up to $5.00; hockey sticks, 25c each to $1.00; pucks, 25c and 50c each.

In the death of Miss Mary Elizabeth Moorhead, the friendless and outcast have lost a true benefactor. Miss Moorhead devoted the greater part of her life to the arduous, unselfish task of succoring the needy and uplifting the fallen. She devoted to the work nearly all of her comfortable income. Thousands are under grateful obligation to this good woman's helping hand, and she will surely be sincerely mourned by a multitude who have full knowledge of what her life work really was.

The vote by which the Cuban reciprocity bill passed the house of representatives amounted to unanimity and accurately represents the sentiment of the American people. It is hoped it will be noted in the senate, and that body may profit by the example. There is no popular sympathy with the cry in one quarter that this measure of reciprocity is a dangerous experiment, nor with the nonsensical Democratic claim that it makes a breach in the tariff wall. There will be less sympathy with any attempt in the senate to delay the bill or to talk it to death. Reciprocal trade relations with Cuba will result in advantage to the United States as well as to the island republic, and are essential to keeping faith with Cuba in the broadest national sense.

Another advance of 5 cents a barrel in the price of crude oil is glad news to producers and land owners throughout the oil regions of four states. It means increased income for them, and in the old, small-well territory the recent advances represent the difference between vanishing income and prosperity. Of course, consumers of petroleum products will have to pay for it, but they have no more cause to complain than have consumers of flour or butter when the prices of wheat or dairy products go up a cent or two. The advance is not the "fault" of anybody in particular, but is the result of decreased production and increasing demand. There will not be wanting denunciations of the Standard Oil Company, but, as a matter of fact, it may profit only through its producing branches.

Both Germany and Brazil have communicated to the United States their intention to establish diplomatic relations with the republic of Panama as soon as a regular government is established in lieu of the provisional authority. There is cause for gratification in this news, because Germany is the only country in Europe whose papers disapproved the action of the United States in the Panama matter, and Brazil is the largest of the South American republics, which the opponents of the administration have declared would lose confidence in this country. We expect that Argentina and Uruguay will soon follow the lead of Brazil, and that even Chile will not long withhold its recognition from Panama. As for the others, they are a turbulent, greedy lot for whose good opinion no one cares much.

Director Arthur A. Hamerschlag of the technical school arrived in the city yesterday and began work at once upon the school plans. This is an exhibition of readiness indicative that the right man has been selected for the important post. Mr. Alfred Moseley, when here with his educational commission, told how and why he had become interested in America. It was in South Africa where he made his fortune and where he met a galaxy of bright young American engineers. He noticed that while the English engineers were thoroughly informed upon every achievement in their profession and prepared to do, in their own time, anything that had ever been done, the American engineers were ready to proceed at once to the solution of any new problem that presented itself. They needed no delays to consult the authorities, but each was an authority in himself. Mr. Moseley concluded there was something in their education that gave them initiative and self-reliance. The new technical school director shows this right spirit and should be able to communicate it to his pupils.

No doubt Director Moore of the public safety department voices the sentiments of others connected with the city administration when he says it is unfair to draw on those who have kept within their appropriations to help those who have recklessly exceeded their allowance. At the very least, due credit should be given departments or bureaus that have practiced strict economy. By the way, economy is not a mere matter of amounts. It is a matter of efficient service for the least justifiable expenditure. Small expenditure which does not secure desired results is extravagant, because it is a waste of resources for nothing. This fact should be borne in mind in making up the budgets. What the people want is good service, protection of life and property, clean, good streets, effective lighting and pure water. They are willing to pay well for these things when they get them, but they are dissatisfied with high taxation for a mere pretense of service. It is not so much the millage that is considered by the public as it is what the public gets in return for its money. All departments should be amply provided for and then they should be compelled to give value received.

Gen. Grosvenor of Ohio, who has gained a high reputation as a political prophet, has already issued his forecast of the next presidential election. He predicts that the Republicans will carry California, Colorado, Connecticut, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, North Dakota, South Dakota, New Hampshire, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Vermont and Wyoming. The Democrats will carry Arkansas, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. The following states are classified as being "good fighting ground:" Delaware, Idaho, Maryland, Montana, Nevada, New York and Utah. Based on these calculations the Republicans have a grand total of 263 votes, the Democrats 151, and the doubtful states 62 votes. The next electoral college will be composed of 476 votes, so that it will require 239 votes to carry the election. Conceding the Democratic party the solid south and all the doubtful states, the Republican party could lose Indiana, Connecticut and New Jersey and still win.

The Business Situation.

There were several developments this week which should be set down on the credit side of a statement of the business situation. The first and most important was the official evidence of the strong position this country occupies toward foreign markets. Our exports of merchandise for October exceeded in value $160,000,000, the largest, with one exception, for any month on record. The value of our imports of merchandise was slightly under $82,000,000, a decrease of nearly $5,500,000 compared with the corresponding month last year. The balance of trade in our favor was $78,439,000. The sales to foreign consumers of cotton alone averaged more than $2,000,000 a day. The record-breaking receipts of this staple at southern shipping points during the past week show that the crop is being rapidly converted into cash, and there is a reasonable expectation that exports will continue on a large scale.

Another development which will have an important bearing upon our foreign trade and at the same time tend to stimulate many branches of domestic trade was the reduction made by the eastern trunk lines in freight rates on iron and steel products intended for export. That our manufacturers will make inroads into the foreign markets was demonstrated during the week by the closing of a contract with an American maker for 20,000 tons of steel rails, to be used by a foreign railroad. There is another aspect of this freight rate reduction which might profitably receive the attention of labor at this time. Had the railroads decided to maintain their rates this particular class of business would remain a minimum or minus quantity. By agreeing to a cut of one-third in their former rates for this service they will make less profit per ton, but they will get more tons to haul, and the production of this iron and steel for export will stimulate the movement of other commodities connected with or entering into the process of manufacture, because business begets business.

Trade reaction has apparently not yet run its course and there is a declining tendency in some manufactured products following the cuts that have been made in iron and steel. If the contraction in industrial circles continues the reduced buying power of the public will naturally be followed by a reduced demand for luxuries and for what have come to be regarded as necessaries of life, and prices for these will decline. At least this is the present attitude of the general public, and as a consequence merchants will pursue a hand-to-mouth policy in buying. There is one fact, however, which should be borne in mind, both by those who look for further concessions and by those who are always on the alert to seize the turn in the markets and take advantage of it. The surplus stocks in the hands of jobbers and consumers are light. There was no period during last year or the early part of this year when the productive capacity of mills and factories and the facilities of transportation companies made it possible to accumulate surplus supplies. The well-organized condition of the producing interests has enabled the latter to promptly curtail production, and the actual condition of supply and demand is probably sounder today than at any previous time when trade reaction occurred. Another consideration is the prosperous condition of the southern cotton planter and the western farmer. The buying power of these classes is at the maximum, and a man's wants grow with the ability to satisfy them.

Some improvement has occurred in the stock market. The active bidding for several new bond issues—notably that of New York City—for which 64 banks and individual investors submitted proposals—shows that funds are not lacking for high-grade securities. This demand usually goes before improvement in the general stock market, and the latter has already responded to the better feeling in financial circles. Gold continues to come from Europe and the tendency of the money market is toward easier rates.

Preferential Tariff.

New Zealand has followed the example of Canada and established a preferential tariff in favor of Great Britain. In fact, it has gone a step further by extending the preferential treatment to all of the British colonies. By the terms of the bill an addition of 20 per cent is made to all duties on goods not from other parts of the British empire, and on many articles heretofore admitted free a duty of 20 per cent is levied against all countries except those in the British empire.

This New Zealand tariff is a faithful reflex of the Chamberlain idea and is conclusive evidence that at least one colony fully approves the Chamberlain plan. An examination of the list of articles upon which the duties are laid is apt to suggest the thought that it is aimed especially at the United States, though, of course, no nations are named. However, Great Britain and her colonies are such large customers of the United States that any tariffs imposed by them strikes this country most forcibly.

We anticipate that after a year or two of trial New Zealand may be less enthusiastic over the preferential tariff. It may result in some advantage to the United Kingdom from the start, but inasmuch as the United Kingdom has no tariff through which it may give reciprocal advantage to New Zealand, the land of compulsory arbitration may find itself getting the worst of the bargain. Moreover, some of the articles on which the additional duty is laid are produced in England of very inferior quality. Boots and shoes are notable examples. These are exported from America to Great Britain, and even into Germany, despite its high tariff barrier. They will continue to go to New Zealand to such customers as appreciate neatness, comfort and good wearing qualities, but they will reach them at a higher price than formerly. It is an open question how long the New Zealanders will tolerate this sort of thing on purely sentimental grounds. Will it be long enough for Mr. Chamberlain to win the mother country over to his way of thinking? If not, the haste of New Zealand to exemplify the former colonial secretary's logic will prove a bad thing for Mr. Chamberlain in the end. As for the United States, it will be little affected. Its exports to New Zealand are not extremely large and they will not be all cut off by this preferential tariff.

What the Records Show.

When the Post rejoices that the passage of the Cuban reciprocity measure by the house of representatives makes "a breach in the Dingley tariff wall," it makes one more draft on the intelligence of its readers. In its hostility to the recognition of the new Republic of Panama it makes a claim on the indulgence of its readers. In industriously running Hanna for president against Roosevelt it amuses them. In "playing up" alleged evidence of alliance between the Mormon church and its esteemed contemporary, Mark Hanna, it treats its readers to bold misrepresentation, for the evidence isn't there. Garbling an interview with Reed Smoot in an effort to make the point that there was a deal between Hanna and the Mormon hierarchy, the Post says:

> Denying the allegations of bargaining with Hanna in the presidential campaign, he (Smoot) declares "every one of the heads of the church then, as now, is a Gold Republican, and they all voted for McKinley." This leaves the bargaining of Hanna not a doubtful matter, but with assurance of its frozen truth.

Such information as the Post has on this subject it obtained from the Philadelphia Record, another Democratic paper, but the Record doesn't set down aught in malice. On Wednesday morning it published a letter from its Washington correspondent, detailing a conversation with the Mormon senator from Utah, in which Smoot declared himself a monogamist and asserted that there are no more plural marriages in Utah; following this with a statement concerning the political attitude of the Mormon church, as follows:

> Our membership, so far as I know, is equally divided between the two great parties, and they are not controlled in their voting by the church authorities. If they are tyrannized over by the church, as our enemies claim, why was it that Utah, like other western states, became virulently infected with the Bryan free silver craze in 1896? Without exception every one of the heads of the church then, as now, was a Gold Republican, and I suppose they all voted for McKinley, but they did not attempt to make the members of the church vote that way.

In 1896, with every head of the Mormon church "a Gold Republican," which the Post joyously asserts, "leaves the bargaining of Hanna not a doubtful matter, but with assurance of its frozen truth," the vote of Utah for Bryan for president was 64,607, and for McKinley only 13,491. So that if Mr. Hanna did any bargaining with the Gold Republican heads of the Mormon church in 1896, as the Post holds to be proven, he didn't get the goods. The surface indications are, however, as Mr. Smoot asserts, that there was no attempt to influence the Mormons to vote for McKinley.

It is a safe rule that if you see it in the editorial columns of the Post it isn't so.

Prof. Garrett P. Serviss, the astronomer, in a magazine article on "The Star of Bethlehem" ventures to suggest that it may have been nothing more than Venus which the Wise Men saw at its brightest. He adds that the nature of Venus might easily have been unknown to the "Wise Men." As Venus returns to the same phase every 584 days, the Wise Men must have been kept on the jump at a lively rate. Maybe they ran special excursions in those days for Wise Men who didn't know the evening star when they saw it.

The reason that the Colombian generals were not permitted to land at Colon probably was that they were suspected of being loaded.

People who have been expecting to secure their winter supply of steel rails from the bargain counter are growing nervous.

Of course, Senator Hanna would like to be president, but where the presidency is concerned he is determined to be right.

President Wos y Gil of San Domingo begins to appreciate the feelings of our old friend, his predecessor, Simon Sam.

The Quiet Observer.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

The following notes are a few examples of the aspirations of 30 primary pupils whose teacher gave them as a subject for a composition the sentence, "What would you do if you were rich?"

These three were written by boys:

"If I was rich I would buy the finest automobile in the world and git my father elected policeman to keep me from being arrested for fast racing."

"I would build a yot and travel a grate deal. I would mebbe discover the North Pole or something."

"If I had enuff money to do what I pleased I would go abred and capture wild animals an' git together a show bigger than any evern seen so far. I would let all boys go in free."

The girls showed an inclination for more selfish gratification except in the case of the following:

"If I was rich I would buy a big island and build the biggest mansion in the world. Then I would adopt all the orfins in New York and give them a good time all their life."

"I would live in the Waldorf hotel and have a lot of servants to dress me and drive me around. I would have the finest dresses in New York. I would marry the handsomest man in the world."

"If I had a milyon dollars I would build a marble house in Central park with a soda water fountin in it and a fonograf. I would buy all the silk dresses I wanted and some for my sister and a gold watch for my brother."—New York Times.

What would you do if you were rich?

Don't try to give a funny answer, but give the question serious consideration, for it is, indeed, a serious matter to care for and to properly use riches.

The answers given by these New York boys and girls are about what might be expected from those reared in a great city, or even in one that is only moderately great.

And what else could you expect when pupils in our schools and colleges are not taught and not made to realize that wealth is a great responsibility, a trust that must surely be accounted for to the utmost farthing.

* * * * *

Wealth is a grave responsibility, while riches are a curse.

It is one thing to be wealthy, but quite another to be rich.

Wealth is material, while riches are of the heart. A man may be as rich with a dollar hoarded away as with a million. The man of wealth accumulates money by the exercise of his commercial or business talents. He invests his dollars where they will do the most good for those who must needs earn a living for themselves and families, at the same time benefiting society in general.

Riches consist mainly in a desire to own, or to possess money without regard to the good, or the harm, it may do.

Andrew Carnegie has right ideas concerning wealth and its disposition. In a Thanksgiving day address delivered in the Montefiore home, a Jewish institution in New York for the care of the poor and helpless, he made the following observations, which indicate the salient points in the true gospel of wealth:

"The world is growing better every day. Man cannot go backward. The rich man is giving more and more to the poor, administering his estate before he dies, and making ready to answer in the final test not so much what he has done for theoretical religion as what he has done for his fellow-men.

"So many people of wealth make a great mistake in the way their wealth is distributed. Much is given to pauperize. You help others to help themselves. In this home you recognize in humanity the image of divinity. I am delighted to see that you depend not upon a few millionaires for the support of this charitable institution, but that you seek to interest a vast number and thus have donations from the rich and poor alike. I congratulate you that I see wisdom in all your giving.

"The best monument I know for a man is membership for life in an institution like this. Somebody very frequently congratulates me upon my giving several million dollars to Pittsburgh. But I always say to them, 'Don't congratulate me on what I gave to Pittsburgh, but congratulate me on what I induced Pittsburgh to give along with my gift. If you congratulate me on this I say, shake!'

"When I die I want on my tombstone no reference to what I have given to my fellow-man, but rather this line: 'He induced the following persons to give, etc.' That's something to put on a man's tombstone.

"We have thousands of hospitals and schools, and let us not forget that in most cases they have been built by the kind, gentle inspiration of the women. In every race, in every religion, we are looking more and more to what a man does and less to theoretical beliefs. Confucious told us 2,500 years ago that all religion must come essentially from one Divine power or energy. I look to see in the twentieth century a progress in this direction so that all shall be imbued with the same faith and the same ideas."

Following is a wise and safe creed for those who desire rules and regulations by which to live:

We believe in good health mentally, morally and physically, and that it is one of the first duties of man to be well.

We believe that all organized life is developed according to definite laws, and that these laws never change.

We believe that there are laws of health, of which the majority of mankind are today ignorant. That is no reason they should always be ignorant. It is our duty to learn.

We believe that ignorance is neither bliss nor innocence. No good thing ever came through ignorance. Know what is right, then do it.

We believe there is a distinct relation between right living and right thinking. If you do not think right, you cannot live right.

We believe that moral or physical sickness is the immediate or remote result of the violation of some law of life. Therefore to avoid sickness make right living your study.

We believe that the laws of life are very similar whether expressed in the language of the animal or vegetable world. All organized life must depend upon nourishment. If this nourishment is taken in violation of the laws of life, defect or disaster is the inevitable result. Learn then how, when and what to eat.

We believe that it is the right of every child to be well born. Stop breeding traitors, assassins and thieves! We need workers, teachers and statesmen.

We believe in the glory of womanhood, and look for the time coming when every man will feel that he stands on holy ground when he meets a woman wearing the crown of approaching maternity.

We believe that our children should be taught the truths of their own bodily structures, and of their relation to the never ending stream of life. There are sins from which they can never be cleansed, crimes for which there is no repentance.

We believe that disease and drunkenness, cruelty and crime are but other names for diseases which finally will be prevented.

Speaking of creeds and rules and regulations recalls one of Sam Foss' poetic skits in which he relates a controversy once held over the question of proper prose in prayer:

"The proper way for a man to pray,"
Said Deacon Lemuel Keyes,
"And the only proper attitude
Is down upon his knees."

"No, I should say the way to pray,"
Said Rev. Dr. Wise,
"Is standing straight with outstretched arms
And rapt and upturned eyes."

"Oh, no; no, no," said Elder Slow,
Such posture is too proud;
A man should pray with eyes fast closed,
And head contritely bowed."

"It seems to me his hands should be
Austerely clasped in front,
With both thumbs pointing to'ards the ground,"
Said Rev. Dr. Blunt.

"Las' year I fell in Hodgkins' well
Head first," said Cyrus Brown,
"With both my heels a-stickin' up,
My head a-pintin' down.

"An' I made a prayer right then an' there—
Best prayer I ever said,
The prayingest prayer I ever prayed,
A-standin' on my head."

Talked of in New York

GEORGE C. JENKS.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Speculation on the future direction of the rapid transit tunnel has been active for two years at least. The route of the railway was laid out at the beginning but has been changed many times since. Even now the possibility of surface lines working in with the subway route, or the tunnel itself going in various unexpected directions to suit local conditions here and there in Manhattan is variously discussed. This discussion has led to the planning of places of amusement at points where they would have been regarded as out of the question, commercially speaking, a year ago. Take Ninety-sixth street, for instance. As there will be a subway station at Broadway and Ninety-sixth it is the purpose of the street railway company to build a surface cross-town line along Ninety-sixth from the Hudson to the East river. As soon as this was known, before it became the property of the public at large, a syndicate began to consider the putting up of a large building in which should be a restaurant, concert hall and roof garden at the corner of Ninety-sixth street and Broadway. The eligibility of this site will make the cost enormous, but the syndicate behind the project has the money necessary to carry it out. There are other places of the kind in the neighborhood so that the new managers will not be breaking new ground for a place of amusement, but of course they mean to overshadow everything else in that line in that vicinity.

Stringency Felt in Downtown Cafes.

The dumpishness of Wall street is reflected in the Tenderloin. Theater managers have been complaining for the last two or three weeks and now the cafes along Broadway feel that there is stringency down in the region where the money comes from. Men who frequent cozy, oak finished nooks within waiter reach of the glistening bars, to drink and chat are not so numerous as they were wont to be. Finding that it strains their resources to pay the modest bar checks which they would have covered without a thought a month since, they do not care to visit their old haunts under those conditions. Managers of cafes between Madison square and the subway ruins at Forty-second street all confess that trade is not what it was, and there is little temptation for any of them to flout the excise law by staying open too far into the small hours of the morning. They lay it all to Wall street. When things pick up there they expect to see more business. As it is they depend principally on casual customers and the intermittent football riots of college men.

Harrowing Details of an "L" Smash.

Although the Manhattan elevated railway never, according to tradition, lost a passenger in a collision, the Brooklyn rapid transit is not so fortunate. The smash-up in Brooklyn last night grows in horror as the facts come out. Aside from the number of damage suits that are sure to be brought by passengers proof against the blandishments of the company's adjusters, it was threatened today that indictments would be sought against some of the high officials. Criminal negligence is the expression used frequently tonight, just as it always has been when an accident like that in Brooklyn attracts general attention.

Broadway Given Prompt Cleaning.

One of the creditable features of municipal management in Manhattan is the thorough manner in which Broadway is cleaned up after a period of mud, slop and general filth. It is true that some of the side streets may be left to wallow for several days, but Broadway is always washed, dried, and, as it were, powdered, until it is as immaculate as a lady's cheek. Broadway never looked cleaner and more wholesome than it does this week.

Women Yearn for Ornamental Crosses.

The favorite ornament in the way of jewelry among the feminine population of New York is a large gold cross. A popular actress wears one in a play now running and it caught the fancy of one woman who is known for her excellent taste, and she appeared in a similar ornament the next day. Jewelers say they are so overrun with demands for crosses that they have put their workmen on this kind of article almost exclusively. Large crosses in particular are popular. Some women are looking up old crosses in the curio shops, mostly from the Philippines and Spanish countries, and prices have shot upward in consequence.

Cattle Have New Disease.

New Jersey cattle raisers in this part of the country are alarmed over a disease which has appeared among cows and is carrying them off by the score. It is described as "mysterious starvation." The animal shows all symptoms of exhaustion from lack of food, although it eats its usual quantity of good fodder throughout the progress of the ailment until it dies. If the disease operates as the Jersey farmers describe it there should be in it an interesting subject of study for scientists.

Naval Architects Banquet Again.

Naval architecture and marine engineering have been reduced to a gastronomic exemplification tonight. The members of the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineering, who have been in annual convention here for the eleventh time, are banqueting at Delmonicos. This is the last function of the convention and tomorrow the delegates will spread themselves all over the country, but principally in coastwise cities. Men in their line are not disposed to be garrulous except among themselves, but it is understood that several important problems have been brought up and dealt with successfully this week.

Platt Breaks an Old Habit.

It looked like old times today at the Fifth Avenue hotel as Senator T. C. Platt walked from the elevator and stood for a few moments in the "Amen Corner." He did not take a seat on the plush covered bench, nor did he talk mysteriously and earnestly to a group of friends presumably on politics in the historic corner. But he stood there for a few moments, apparently in deep thought, as if from mere force of habit. Then he transacted some business at the clerk's desk and went up again in the elevator. Later, with Mrs. Platt, he visited the horse show, as everyone does who happens to drop into New York this week.

Police Sergeant Referees a Fight.

There is a story going the round of the Tenderloin and police stations that a prize fight was "pulled off" last night in the very shadow of an East Side police station. Moreover, it is declared by some of the sports who say they were there that the referee was a police sergeant. The name of the sergeant is discreetly hidden, but enough interest is taken in the anecdote at headquarters for a special inquiry to be on foot. As a matter of fact it is probable that violations of the law in this direction are more frequent than they have been for two years. You cannot make an old New Yorker believe that there will not be a "wide open" town after the 31st of December, let Tammany leaders protest as they may.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—This government was so completely fooled by the Colombian government on the canal treaty that it proposes to take no chances with the new republic of Panama. The new treaty, having been drawn up and signed by the authorized commissioners, Panama will be permitted to take the lead in the matter of ratification. "After you," says Secretary Hay, and the treaty has been started south to receive the formal approval of the new government.

But no delay in the matter of ratification is anticipated since the junta is the only authority to be consulted and the members of it are known to be favorable to the terms contained in the treaty just signed. Secretary Hay believes the treaty will be back in this country early in December ready for the ratification of our senate.

Senate Slow on Cuban Measure.

If the action of the senate today on the Cuban treaty bill is any criterion, it is hard to guess when that body will reach a vote on the measure. The senate took all afternoon to debate the question as to whether the bill should be referred to the committee on foreign relations or to the finance committee. Both Republicans and Democrats agreed that it really made no difference which committee got it, but they were anxious that a proper precedent should be established. Finally after reading the record on many similar cases and citing conflicting precedents, the bill went to the committee on foreign relations.

Trying to Dodge the Issue.

The proposition has been broached by members of the senate that an agreement be reached on the date during the regular session when a vote shall be taken on the bill and the senate and house now adjourn the special session and take up the discussion in the regular session. This proposition is strongly opposed by the leaders of the house, who declare that such a course would be highly discourteous to the president. He called the extra session for the sole purpose of passing this one bill and the house has done its part. Now for the senate to refuse to do its part and to adjourn without considering the bill does not seem proper to the house leaders. The senate cannot adjourn the special session without the house agrees to it, and consequently it will be obliged to go ahead with the discussion.

Senator Allee Finds Quay a Friend.

Senator Allee of Delaware has obtained a very desirable seat on the Republican side of the chamber through the courtesy of Senator Quay. New senators do not often get the best seats, the older members in point of service having the choice. The occupants of the seats in the front row of the quarter circle on the Republican side beginning with number one and running to the broad aisle which divides the chamber, are Penrose of Pennsylvania, Depew of New York, Quay of Pennsylvania, Platt of New York, Fairbanks of Indiana, Platt of Connecticut, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Cullom of Illinois, and Frye of Maine, so that New York and Pennsylvania have each two seats in the front row. Mr. Frye of Maine, occupies seat number 9, which is considered to be the most desirable on the Republican side. Senator Quay a short time ago requested permission of Mr. Frye to occupy his seat, while he presided over the senate. Mr. Frye consented and Senator Quay changed his seat from number 3 to number 9, and offered number 3 to Senator Allee. It is the custom of the senate to assign new Republican members to rear seats on the Democratic side in what is commonly called the "Cherokee Strip." When Senators Allee and Ball entered the senate for the first time last March they were given seats number 42 and 71, respectively in the "Cherokee Strip," thus separating them from their Republican colleagues the entire width of the chamber, so that Mr. Allee gladly accepted Senator Quay's offer.

Gorman Takes Choice Picking.

Senator Gorman as chairman of the Democratic steering committee of the senate had charge of making the selections from among the minority for membership on the committees. The Maryland senator was not at all modest and he has placed himself on the following important committees: Finance, interstate commerce, interoceanic canals, District of Columbia, postoffices and post roads, to say nothing of some of the less important committees to which he has assigned himself. And besides all this he is trying to arrange it so that he can get on the committee on appropriations, but in order to do so he will have to get Senator Daniel of Virginia out of the way and he may not be able to accomplish this. As a result of this generosity to himself on the part of Senator Gorman the Democrats are very wroth. They feel that he has taken too big a slice and begin to realize that leadership of the Gorman brand comes high.

Between the Lines.

The following brief notice has appeared in the society columns of the Washington newspapers: "Senator and Mrs. Depew will give a dinner for Senator and Mrs. T. C. Platt, December 5."

On the face of it there is nothing remarkable about this announcement as there would seem to be no reason why one senator from New York should not extend courtesy to the other senator from that state. But this innocent looking announcement is causing a great deal of gossip. Owing to the rather sensational circumstances surrounding the recent marriage of Senator Platt to Mrs. Lillian T. Janeway, the social status of the senatorial bride has been the subject of considerable speculation. Predictions of killing frosts were made freely and especial interest was manifested as to what attitude Senator Depew would assume. The genial Depew has evidently decided to stand pat and take no heed of the gossips, hence the dinner announcement. Now the question arises, will the cabinet members and other high officials follow suit in according the new Mrs. Platt social recognition?

President Accepts Mr. Frick's Gift.

The painting by Chartran representing the signing of the peace protocol between the United States and Spain, presented to the government by H. C. Frick of Pittsburgh, has been formally accepted by the president. The picture, which cost $20,000, will eventually be displayed in the East room at the White House. The central figures of the work are the late President McKinley, Secretary of State Day, Assistant Secretaries Adee, Cridler and Hill, Ambassador Cambon, representing Spain, and Secretary Thiebaut of the French embassy.

President Eats Arizona Dates.

The possibilities of this country were illustrated today when the president sat in his office and ate a package of dates grown in Arizona. They were presented to him by Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture who explained that four years ago one of the scientists connected with the department was sent 300 miles into the Sahara desert, where he saw date palms growing in an oasis, and concluded that they would grow in this country. A year later he brought 400 of the young trees to this country and transplanted them in Arizona, where they are flourishing. The dates presented to the president today were of the first crop received at the department. President Roosevelt was highly interested in the statement of the secretary and expressed the hope that date-growing would eventually become an important industry in the United States.

Penrose Introduces Pension Bill.

Senator Penrose today presented the petition of Col. Thomas J. Biddle, Post No. 238 G. A. R., of Kane, Pa., asking for the enactment of a bill giving a service pension of $12 per month to all soldiers and sailors who served not less than 90 days in the Civil war.

Bridal Pair Visit Washington.

B. S. Horne of Pittsburgh and his bride, formerly Miss Anthony of Chicago, were at the capitol today. They are making a short visit to Washington.

Reserve Agent Approved.

The Mellon National bank of Pittsburgh was today approved by the comptroller of the currency as reserve agent for the First National bank of St. Clairsville, Ohio.

Panama Canal in Sight.

At last the canal is in sight. In the words of the new envoy, Panama and the United States are united in a common and ardent desire to see at last the accomplishment of the heroic enterprise for piercing the barrier of the Andes. The two governments should have little trouble and consume little time in agreeing upon terms on which the canal shall be dug.—Chicago Tribune.

The Death Roll.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Moorhead.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Moorhead, 67 years old, founder of a number of Pittsburgh charitable institutions and a famous Civil war nurse, died at the old Moorhead homestead in Center avenue yesterday morning, after an illness of many months. Miss Moorhead was the founder and director of Bethany home, which for years has occupied the Moorhead homestead, and also the founder of the fruit and flower mission and the public baths in Webster avenue, the latter being the first of their kind to be established in Pittsburgh. Miss Moorhead was a daughter of Gen. James Kennedy Moorhead, a prominent Civil war commander, member of the legislature and citizen of Pittsburgh. He died in 1884. Miss Moorhead on leaving school at once became actively engaged in charitable work to which she devoted her whole life. When the Civil war broke out she identified herself with the subsistence committee, which had its headquarters at Old City hall and did much for the relief of soldiers passing through Pittsburgh. Later she received authority from Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton to visit any of the Union military hospitals and camps, and for months she devoted herself to caring for the sick and wounded soldiers at the front. Through illness contracted while at the front, Miss Moorhead was made an invalid for years, but on recovering her health she founded her charitable institutions, devoting her life to the sick, suffering and poor. Miss Moorhead is survived by two sisters, Miss Henrietta L. Moorhead and Mrs. J. B. Murdoch, and by one brother, Maj. William J. Moorhead. She was also a sister of the late Maxwell K. Moorhead, who was a prominent iron manufacturer.

James C. Sullivan.

James C. Sullivan, a former justice of the peace of East Pittsburgh, died at Mercy hospital yesterday morning, after a long illness from pneumonia. He was one of the best-known young men in the Turtle Creek valley, having been active in public affairs in East Pittsburgh since he located in the borough. He held the office of borough secretary and was later elected justice of the peace, which office he resigned two months ago because of ill health. Mr. Sullivan was the son of Cornelius Sullivan of Beech street, East Pittsburgh. He was born in Paterson, N. J., October 15, 1873, and with his parents moved to East Pittsburgh 10 years ago. He was a member of St. Colman's Roman Catholic church, Turtle Creek, and prominent in a number of societies connected with the congregation. He is survived by his parents and one brother.

Gen. Francis Marion Drake.

Gen. Francis Marion Drake, formerly governor of Iowa, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Goss at Centerville, Iowa. His son, John A. Drake, and his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Sawyers, are on their way from New York. His other three daughters, Mrs. Henry Goss, Mrs. George Sturdivant and Mrs. T. A. Shonts, and another son, Frank Drake, were at the bedside at the time of death. The estate of Gen. Drake, consisting of bank and railroad stocks and farm lands is said to be worth between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000. It was said that the Drake university of Des Moines, to which Gen. Drake already had given $200,000, would receive a share of the estate.

Mrs. George Campbell.

Mrs. Mary J. Madole Campbell, 35 years old, wife of George Campbell, assistant master mechanic of the furnace department at the Edgar Thomson plant of the Carnegie Steel Company, Braddock, died at the family home, No. 907 Washington avenue, Braddock, yesterday morning after a short illness. She was born in Port Perry and had been a resident of Braddock for the past 10 years. She is survived by her husband and a number of sisters.

Funeral of Miss Daisy M. Vogel.

Funeral services over the remains of Miss Daisy M. Vogel, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Peter Vogel of Somerset, Pa., will be held this afternoon at her parents' home. Miss Vogel, who had been engaged as a teacher in Porto Rico, about two years ago went to the Philippine islands to pursue her profession and before leaving for home she made a tour of the islands with her sister. She contracted typhoid fever, which caused her death at the Civil hospital in Manila on September 28 last.

Mrs. J. H. Solomon.

Mrs. Sophia Sarah Solomon, 27 years old, wife of J. H. Solomon, of No. 815 Ohio street, Allegheny, died yesterday morning at the home of her father, Max Weinberger, in New Castle, Pa., where she went to attend the wedding of her sister, Mrs. Ann Marcowitz of Connellsville. Mrs. Solomon was preparing to return home when attacked by heart disease on Thursday. She is survived by her husband and an infant daughter.

Frank Griffith.

Frank Griffith, 36 years old, died last evening at his home in Talbot avenue, Braddock, of pneumonia. He was a heater at the Edgar Thomson steel works. He is survived by his widow and parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Griffith, one sister and three brothers, all of Braddock.

Jesse Lee Cotton, Jr.

Jesse Lee Cotton, Jr., aged seven, only son of the Rev. and Mrs. Jesse L. Cotton of Coraopolis, died last evening of membraneous croup. The Rev. Mr. Cotton is pastor of the Coraopolis Presbyterian church. The funeral will be held at noon tomorrow.

PERSONALS.

"Lumber will not be any cheaper in Pittsburgh, no matter how little building is done," said A. W. Jones, of Detroit. "It is not the scarcity of lumber that has run up the prices so much as it is the distance it has to be transported from the forests. There is little wood in Pennsylvania, especially hemlock or white pine. Hickory is plentiful in certain portions of the state, but within a few years this will all have been cut down. The only way to cheapen lumber in Pennsylvania is for every land owner to plant trees on arbor day. Even should this be done it will be several years before the trees would be fit for use." Mr. Jones is staying at the Seventh Avenue.

H. J. McGill of Rochester, N. Y., an automobile manufacturer, arrived in Pittsburgh yesterday and is registered at the Henry. He said many manufacturers are at present making machines of an inferior quality. They will be substantial and safe, but not so artistically finished as the machines turned out this season. "I predict that within the next three years," he said, "automobiles will be on the market at $100 each. Improvements will constantly be made, both in regard to speed and durability. Lighter machines will be much in evidence next year. The wheels will be no heavier than those on bicycles."

The Monroe Doctrine.

There is not much in the assertion that the course of the United States toward Colombia will weaken the Monroe doctrine in the eyes of foreign powers. The Monroe doctrine never had any more force than was given by the ability of the United States to back it up, and unless the military strength of this country has been impaired the Monroe doctrine is as effective as ever.—Memphis Scimitar.

RAILROAD BILLS UP NEXT WEEK

John Upperman Announces He Will Call Meeting of His Sub-Committee.

ACTION ON OTHER MEASURES

John Upperman, chairman of the corporations committee of select council, and also chairman of the sub-committee that has possession of the railroad ordinances, yesterday stated that he would probably call a meeting of his sub-committee for some day next week. He said he could not foretell what action the committee would take. The members of the sub-committee are John Upperman, John Benz and John J. Shenkel. The sub-committee has in its keeping the Baltimore & Ohio station ordinance, the Pennsylvania ordinance for the Duquesne way elevated line, and the ordinance for the Wabash elevated line to parallel the Pennsylvania's proposed road.

A meeting of the sub-committee to consider the South Side street vacations asked for by the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad, a branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, has been called for next Monday afternoon. The company is asking for the vacation of eight streets, or portions of them, for an extension of its yards and tracks.

As compensation for these vacations the railroad has filed an agreement with the city clerk stating that it will permit the city to build a foot bridge over its tracks at South Eighteenth street, and will repay the city for the bridge, providing the structure does not cost more than $800, and that the ordinances are passed promptly. As the agreement was filed last June and councils have not yet taken action, it is very probable that the offer no longer holds good.

The vacations asked for are as follows: Sarah street, from Thirty-second to Thirty-third; Sarah, from a point near Thirty-fourth to Carson; Carey alley, from Thirty-third to Thirty-fourth; Twenty-sixth, Thirty-fourth and Thirty-third, from Carson to Sarah; Twentieth, from Mary to Edwards alley. The ordinances were introduced in councils a year ago with three others which have since been passed.

SOLOIST A SUCCESS.

First Public Appearance of Miss Tracy With The Pittsburgh Orchestra.

Miss Mary Golden Tracy, soprano, was the soloist with the Pittsburgh orchestra at the third concert of the season given last evening in Carnegie Music Hall. She sang two numbers, the aria "Leise, Leise fromme Weise," from "Der Freischuez," Weber, in the first half, and a group of delightful songs in the second half of the program. Miss Tracy is well known here, having appeared at several private musicales previously, although this was her first public appearance. Her voice is a fresh, high soprano, and she sings with much purity of tone and perfect ease. Especially pleasing was her rendition of Reynaldo Hahn's "Reverie," which she sang with sympathetic charm. She was received with much enthusiasm, and after several recalls, sang encore number. Miss Tracy was the recipient of many flowers after singing her first number. Her stage presence is unassuming, yet dignified and graceful.

The purely orchestral number which made the greatest impression was the Delibes ballet suite, "La Source," four of the most melodious delicate little movements. The andante was the the occasion of a fine horn solo by Fritz Koch. This movement and also the two succeeding movements aroused the audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm, and Herbert was obliged to repeat each of the three. This was the first number on the second half of the program. The first orchestra number was Mendelssohn's overture, "Melusina," a work full of the clear harmonies and melodic beauty characteristic of this composer. Glazounow, a modern Russian composer, was represented by a symphony, No. 7, opp. 77, and this performance was the first which has been given in the United States. It is not an imposing work, although parts of it are very beautiful.

The concert closed with the Tschaikowsky "Marche Solennelle," played for the first time in this city. The work of the orchestra throughout the evening was well up to the standard.

TAPPED WATER MAINS.

American Sugar Refining Co., Said to Owe $525,000 for Six Year's Supply.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—On allegations made by Deputy Commissioner of Water Supply Van Inderstine that the American Sugar Refining Company, at its Williamsburg plant has tapped the city's water supply for the last six years, thereby avoiding payment of a bill of $525,000, the Kings county grand jury today began the taking of testimony in an investigation of the matter.

The water commissioner several months ago began to suspect that the water from the city reservoirs was being used either by someone to whom it was not charged or that there was somewhere a huge leak in one of the mains. Inspecters were sent to make a thorough investigation and in their report they allege that they found the Sugar Company consuming large quantities of water which passed through no meter, they said, and for which they asserted the city had rendered no bill.

ORPHANS LOOK FOR AN ASYLUM

Will Have a Headquarters and Register Books for Sympathizers' Names.

BUS IS NOT A CIRCUS WAGON

The Orphans are looking up a political headquarters. Before many days another headquarters will be added to the three already in the downtown district. A feature of the Orphans' campaign will be the registration. If downtown headquarters can be found in a busy thoroughfare the registration books will be kept there, otherwise a booth will be erected where the crowds mostly congregate, and any Pittsburgh voter who approves of the political tenets of the Orphans will have an opportunity to put his name in the register. This plan was adopted by the Acorn club in New York in the last campaign.

Thomas S. Bigelow returned yesterday morning from the east. Murry A. Verner was out of the city all day and returned in the evening. It was supposed Mr. Verner had been to Beaver looking up his traction interests.

Charles S. Crawford, president of common council, and one of the leaders of the Orphans, is still at the Mercy hospital, although it was said yesterday by his friends that his health is improving.

To tell a man that he was "gold bricked" is getting to be a serious matter, and two men are already under bail to answer for complications said to have resulted from a mutual bestowal of the accusation. William H. McClure, an East End real estate agent, gave bail for court yesterday before Alderman John Groetzinger on the charge of assault and battery brought by Attorney Joseph Crown. Crown is already under bond on a similar accusation made by McClure.

The two men met in McClure's office a week ago, and McClure asked Crown to support McClure's partner, H. H. Wunderlich, for council at the next election. Crown consented until he learned that Wunderlich was a candidate for the Citizens party nomination, when he asked McClure to release him from the pledge. His request brought on words.

The story is that Crown told McClure he had been "gold-bricked" by the Citizens, and that thereupon McClure charged Crown with being the recipient of a like shining gift from the Republicans. McClure is said to have retaliated with a blow, and Crown is alleged to have reciprocated the attention.

TOM HORN IS DEAD.

Scout and Indian Fighter Executed Without the Threatened Attempt at Rescue.

CHEYENNE, WYO., Nov. 20.—Tom Horn, scout, Indian fighter and cattle detective, today went smiling to the gallows to expiate the murder of Willie Nickell, 14 years old, on July 18, 1901, at Iron Mountain. With almost his last words, spoken to an intimate friend, Charles Irwin, a spectator at the execution, Horn denied that he had confessed to the murder for which he was to die. He made no speech on the scaffold.

Soon after the trap fell, the 40 spectators passed out. All had been searched for fire arms before entering and guards armed with rifles kept their eyes fixed on Horn's friends throughout the proceedings. Thousands of people were congregated near the jail, and the militia remained on guard until the execution was over and the crowd had dispersed. There was no disorder.

WRITER OF OLD-TIME SONGS IS DEAD AT PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—Hart P. Danks, a musical composer of national repute and formerly a noted singer, was found dead today in his boarding house here. He was 73 years old. Mr. Danks was born in New Haven. He began the study of music at an early age and was the composer of many old-time popular songs, including "Don't Be Angry With Me Darling," and "Silver Threads Among the Gold." He also wrote much church music and was at various times connected as director or basso soloist, with prominent churches in New York, Brooklyn, Chicago and Cleveland.

MOORE FIGHTS TO KEEP HIS MONEY

Opposes Transfer of His Appropriation to Help Bigelow Out of Hole.

PLAN TO SUPPLY SHORTAGE

"Let him shinny on his own side," said Director Harry Moore yesterday when he heard that Director E. M. Bigelow was preparing to draw upon the appropriations of the public safety department to supply the big shortage in the bureau of highways and sewers. Director Moore expressed himself as very much averse to giving up his funds to make good deficiencies in the public works department, and said:

"It is not fair. There will be a little money left over in the appropriations for fire and police, but not nearly enough to make up the deficiency in the public works department. They cannot expect to get $35,000 from my department. Of course, it is all city money, but I do not believe that one department should be crippled to remove a shortage in another department. We have tried to economize and there will probably be a small surplus in the police bureau because we have not had our full quota of men on the force. We have managed to save some money in the fire bureau, because we have bought no apparatus this year, not even a hose. We have had our own machine shop and have saved money by making our own repairs."

Director Bigelow says he intends to make up the deficiency in the bureau of highways and sewers by transferring about $50,000 from other bureaus. As there is a deficiency in nearly every bureau of his department, it is his intention to go to the public safety department for additional funds. The finance committee has transferred about $172,500 to make good deficiencies in the street lighting, water and other bureaus, but did not provide for highways and sewers. The money for the street lighting and water is to be taken out of the judgment fund.

Assistant Controller E. S. Morrow said yesterday that after this money is transferred there will be about $10,000 remaining in the judgment fund. This will be taken by Director Bigelow for highways and sewers, but he will need at least $35,000 or $40,000 more at once.

It is Director Bigelow's intention to put resolutions in councils at the next meeting to transfer the amounts from other bureaus to highways and sewers. If the employes of the highways and sewers bureau get their November wages, councils will have to hold extra sessions to pass the necessary resolutions.

HOAR'S BOOK OUT.

Authobiography by the Venerable Massachusetts Statesman Just Off the Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Senator George F. Hoar's "Autobiography of Seventy Years" was issued today by Charles Scribner's Sons. The two good-sized volumns into which the venerable senator from Massachusetts has compressed the recollections of his long and distinguished career are, as was anticipated, a valuable and interesting contribution to the political history of the country.

Those who anticipated that Senator Hoar would reveal the inside secrets of the momentous events his career has covered will be disappointed. While he explains the motives that governed him in his attitude in certain matters of historic moment he has carefully refrained from overstepping the correct bounds of his position. There are no secrets divulged in the "Autobiography of Seventy Years."

Now Working Shorter Hours.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—The reduction of the working hours of the employes of the shops of the Pennsylvania railroad in this city went into effect this morning and will effect about 250 men. Working hours have been reduced to nine hours a day and to five hours on Saturday. The men formerly worked ten hours a day and nine hours on Saturday.

FIGHT AGAINST J. S. WIGHTMAN

Several Citizens Members Refuse to Caucus for Presidency of Select.

THOS. E. PERRY A CANDIDATE

Uncertainty regarding the selection of a president of select council prevails, notwithstanding the statements of Citizens party leaders that James S. Wightman of the Twenty-second ward will be elected. A number of other candidates have sprung up, and several Citizens members are reported to have declared that they will not enter the caucus to nominate a candidate. The Citizens party cannot elect a president unless every member abides by the action of the caucus, as City Clerk E. W. Glassler has ruled that 20 votes are still required to make a quorum.

The Citizens party strength in select council consists of 19 votes, and two or three members are reported to have announced that they will not be bound by any caucus. This gives these members virtual control of the situation in the event of a contest, as seems likely to occur.

Thomas E. Perry of the Twelfth ward is said to be slated by the combine for the presidency of select council, and this insures a contest. The combine has 13 members, and if it takes three or four Citizens members with them, as has been done on numerous occasions, it will have a majority of the votes.

Wightman will even have opposition for the caucus nomination. Several other Citizens members have been mentioned as candidates, among whom were John Costello of the Thirty-fifth ward and P. J. Barry of the Fifth ward. Robert H. Douglas is still regarded as a possibility, and he may be elected as a compromise between the Citizens and the combine.

The fact that Wightman is considered the personal candidate of Thomas S. Bigelow has aroused against him the opposition of several Citizens members who just now hold grievances. One of these is George S. Fleming, who has been refused a renomination on the Citizens party ticket for select council from the First ward, Mr. Bigelow having slated Common Councilman Thomas Delaney.

Another uncertain quantity in the Citizens ranks is William E. Schempp of the Thirteenth ward, who has voted with the combine on several occasions. Henry Poke of the Thirty-second ward is also said to be nourishing resentment because his brother, who is on the city payroll, was reduced in rank and pay.

Controller John B. Larkin said yesterday that he did not believe that the Citizens party could elect a president of select council at the present time. He is of the opinion that the Citizens party leaders will give up the intention of electing a president until after the February election and in the meantime permit the select council to be governed by a president pro tem.

DAYS AT ELDERSRIDGE ACADEMY TO BE RECALLED

Fourteenth Annual Banquet of Alumni of Old School Will Be Held Next Week.

The Eldersridge Academy Old Students' association will get together for their fourteenth annual banquet and reception at the Hotel Duquesne next Friday evening at 6 o'clock. James S. Young, United States district attorney for the Western Pennsylvania district, and James Evans will be the guests of honor. The majority of the alumni will be accompanied by their wives and daughters. In the absence of Dr. Cadwallader Evans, president of the association, Vice President Frank L. Curtis will preside.

Weighty topics are taken by the speakers for their addresses, but those who expect to hear international and social matters discussed in a serious vein will be disappointed. The old fellows of Eldersridge go in for a good time when they gather around the board about Thanksgiving time, and nothing is taken too seriously. The toasts are announced as follows:

"Our Colonies," Col. James E. Barnett; "Our Republic," Maj. Harry Watson; "The Macedonian Trouble," the Rev. Dr. Robert L. Smith; "Oriental Problems," the Rev. Dr. Noble G. Miller; "The Transformation of Eldersridge," James W. Smith; "Life Without a Wife," a poem by the Rev. Dr. David E. Craighead; "Power of the Press," R. J. Walker; "The Trust Enigma," M. C. Watson; "Muller et Gallina," the Rev. Dr. Frank J. Walker; "A Run on the Bank," Dr. J. G. Stewart; "Greatness by Comparison," Lewis McMullen; "Bound and Gagged," Sheriff E. E. Cochran of Armstrong county; "Daughters of the American Revolution," a recitation by Mrs. W. C. Anderson; "Lex Talionis," Judge Marshall Brown; "Men's, Women's and Children's Undertaking," W. L. Douglas, Boston.

LECTURE ON JAPANESE ART.

Prof. Fenollosa Tonight Speaks on the First of Three Subjects.

The Art society has engaged Professor Ernest F. Fenollosa for three lectures on Japanese art which will be given in the lecture rooms of Carnegie institute, beginning this evening, the second and third letures to be given in the same place on Wednesday and Saturday evenings of next week.

All the lectures will be illustrated by lantern slides, the original photographs of which, in many instances, were taken under the supervision of Professor Fenollosa. The special subject tonight is "The Five Periods of Japanese Art," the lecture covering in synopsis the whole history of the art of that country for thirteen centuries. Though an American, Prof. Fenollosa was appointed by the Japanese government to make a report of European art progress.

"Marta of the Lowlands."

"Marta of the Lowlands," the Spanish play of Angel Guimera to be presented at the Duquesne Monday evening, is perhaps one of the truest pictures of life on the American stage today. Joy and pain, laughter and weeping, cruelty and sweetness, all are interwoven and amalgamated into the flux that purges the souls of the actors in the story. But like all great art, the work of this Spanish writer does not lead his audience through a maze of incident, to leave it in the slough of despond at last. The lesson of the play is hopeful, and it teaches the greatest of all virtues, which is charity.

SOCIETY.

AN ENGAGEMENT is just announced which is one of the most romantic Pittsburgh people have heard for a long time. It is that of Miss Anne McGrew Tindle, the well-known singer, and Percival Lampard of Simla, India. The formal announcement of the engagement will be followed by the wedding on Monday at the home of the mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Anna Tindle, in Glenfield, and on Wednesday Mr. Lampard and his bride will sail from New York for England, going to Simla by way of London and Paris. Until about a week ago Miss Tindle and Mr. Lampard had not seen one another for 10 years. In that time Miss Tindle has become one of the most prominent singers in Pittsburgh, while Mr. Lampard rose in his position, that of civil engineering. The renewal of their acquaintance during the last week has resulted in the hurried preparations for the wedding and their departure for England and the orient in less than two weeks. Miss Tindle is a member of the Madrigal and the Tuesday Musical club and is one of the best known contralto soloists in Western Pennsylvania. She is a cousin of Mrs. Edward Hanna Small and Miss Alice Tindle of the East End, and a niece of the late Dr. Tindle, one of the best known physicians in this part of the state. Mr. Lampard and his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Lampard of London, have been touring the United States for several months. Mrs. Lampard is now in New York, and because they had arranged to sail next Wednesday for England, the wedding plans are hastened. This is Mr. Lampard's second visit to Pittsburgh. He came to this country from England in 1893, during the world's fair in Chicago, and accepting a position with the Westinghouse company, remained in Pittsburgh for six months. It was then that the acquaintance began. Mr. and Mrs. Lampard will spend December in England and go to Paris after the holidays. In two or three months they will leave for Simla, where Mr. Lampard is engaged in civil engineering work for the British government and is attached to the staff of the viceroy.

Miss Wardrop Introduced.

An unusually large and handsome reception was given in Sewickley yesterday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock by Mrs. Robert Wardrop, Academy avenue, in honor of her debutante daughter, Miss Betty Thompson Wardrop. There were 400 guests present and receiving with Mrs. Wardrop and her daughter was Mrs. Wardrop's niece, Mrs. Charles Blanchard Seely of Pittsburgh, a recent bride. Mrs. Wardrop was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Mrs. George Sands, Mrs. John E. Shaw, Mrs. E. P. Young, Mrs. William Wardrop, the Misses Wardrop, Mrs. George H. Clapp, Mrs. Elizabeth Love, Mrs. Edward A. Woods, Mrs. Henry Davis, Mrs. Charles McKnight, Mrs. Theodore Nevin, Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. Royal Scoville, Mrs. George E. McCague, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Wallace Tener, Mrs. William Titus and Miss Stewart. Miss Wardrop had as her aids her two house guests, Miss Bessie Hays of New Bedford, Mass., and Miss Marion Tillman of Cleveland, O.; Miss Charlotte Kennedy, Miss Katherine Darsie, Miss Mary Davidson, Miss Jane Blair, Miss Gladys Painter, Miss Emma Boggs, Miss Jessie Smith, Miss Martha Cauce, Miss Adele Shaw, Miss Eleanor Gormley, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Ruth Clause, Miss Jane Peebles, Miss Margaret Watson and Miss Elsie Metcalf. After the reception the young ladies remained for dinner and in the evening an equal number of young men were present. The evening was spent at hearts.

Miss McElveen's Reception.

A bride and a bride-elect, Mrs. Gilbert McElveen and Miss Lydia Cochran, shared honors at the reception given yesterday afternoon by Miss Ella McElveen. The afternoon was given over wholly to the young girls, Miss McElveen giving a dinner in the evening for her aids and an equal number of men. Assisting were Miss Jeannete Pontefract, Miss Jane Murdoch, Miss Anne Risher, Miss Helen Lewis, Miss Jane McElveen, Miss Adelaide Bindley, Miss Clara Fite and Mrs. Robert Linton, a sister of the hostess.

Miss McElveen received in a gown of nile green silk, lace trimmed, her sister-in-law, Mrs. McElveen, wearing pink silk and Miss Cochran a gown of white. The pretty little home at Forbes street and Woodlawn avenue was prettily decorated for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. McElveen are spending a part of their honeymoon in this city. Their plans for the future have not been settled. They were married in Denver about a month ago. The wedding of Miss Cochran and Maurice Sherrad will take place at the home of the bride on Neville street on Wednesday next and will be quietly conducted.

Cordier—Lucas.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. McDonald in South Fairmount street, was the scene of a pretty little wedding last evening when Mrs. McDonald's sister, Miss Henriette Frances Cordier, became the wife of William Johnston Lucas of Las Vegas, N. M. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alonzo Turkle at 6 o'clock with only the relatives and most intimate friends of the young couple as witnesses.

Two little nieces of the bride, Miss Miriam McDonald and Miss Mildred Butler, were her only attendants, the ushers, Robert A. McDonald and Wilson Stewart, completing the bridal party. The bridal gown was of white crepe trimmed with duchesse and point lace.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. Lucas and his bride will return to Pittsburgh for a time, before taking up their permanent residence in Las Vegas where at home days in January have been announced. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will give a family dinner for the bride and bridegroom on Thanksgiving day.

Recently Announced Engagements.

An engagement of interest to many young people of the East End and Wilkinsburg is that of Miss Lillian M. Conner and J. Hampton McClelland. The wedding will probably take place in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burgess of Sewickley have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lillian Agnes Burgess, and J. Milton K. Abbot. The date for the wedding has not been made public.

An engagement which had been an open secret for some time, but which had never been formally announced, was made public in Sewickley yesterday. It is the engagement of Miss Sophie H. Merz to Hughes H. Baltz, also of Sewickley. No date has as yet been set for the wedding.

Skating Club Organized.

A meeting was held at the home of Miss Frances Coll on Rippey street, East End, on Wednesday evening when a skating club, to be known as the "As You Like It club" was organized. HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—Governor Pennypacker will not call an extra session of the legislature to make an appointment to rebuild the bridges across the Delaware between Bucks county and New Jersey, which were destroyed by the October floods. Women's Clubs

THE WOMEN of Pittsburgh have taken up the project of a substantial memorial to Mrs. Mary E. Schenley. At a meeting of the public baths committee yesterday morning in the Civic club rooms the suggestion of a suitable memorial to Mrs. Schenley was discussed. The discussion finally resolved itself into a motion to confer with the councilmen of Pittsburgh and propose that the idea of a public bathhouse as a monument to Mrs. Schenley be taken into consideration. A committee was appointed to talk with the members of council with this idea in view, that no monument could be erected in the city of Pittsburgh which would be more heartily appreciated by the people themselves than a public bathhouse. The appropriation of $50,000 for the monument to Mrs. Schenley's memory would erect a substantial, handsome and thoroughly equipped bathhouse in any section of the city. Several sites were suggested, the one which received the most favor being in the Soho district, in the neighborhood of St. Agnes' Roman Catholic church, a locality which is very accessible to a great number of persons whose homes are poor and crowded and unprovided with bathing facilities. The women, if the bathhouse be erected by the city as a memorial, will bear the running expenses for the few years until it becomes self-supporting.

Dr. Allyn's Lecture on "Architecture."

The first series of noon lectures on architecture by Dr. George E. Allyn was given yesterday before the students of the Pittsburgh School of Design. The course will include six lectures, that of yesterday being a general discussion of the principles of architecture. The audience which greeted him in the large studio included not only the students of the school, but many of their friends and others interested in the subject. Dr. Allyn defined architecture as master building and claims its study is of great value to everyone. The lecturer described methods in construction, contrasting the structures erected by the tiniest creatures, the wasps, the ants and the beavers, with the newest masterpiece in Washington, the Congressional library. "The elements of architecture," he said, "are stability, utility and artistic qualities. The first is an impressive feature; the second a necessary element, for a building without a purpose is a mistake and the adaptation of a Greek temple to modern church purposes violates the principles of architecture. The artistic qualities are ornamentation, beauty and picturesqueness, the first depending upon the carvings, the second on the lines of structure, and the third depending wholly upon the sentiment the beholder brings to his study of the subject. Architecture has been inspired by religion, government, race, climate, soil and building materials. Religion dictates the forms of architecture, while the building materials decide its character." The following lectures, which will be given during the winter by Dr. Allyn before the school of design, will be presented at intervals of two or three weeks, will include the Egyptian architecture, the Assyrian and Babylonian, the Greek, the Italian, the Moslem, particularly in Spain, and last, the gothic architecture of the Renaissance.

This was one of a series of receptions which this company has been giving different clubs, schools, the Boys' Brigade and church and other organizations during the past month. The college girls followed guides through the building and were shown the process of bread-making from the first step to the last when the loaves come out of the oven brown to a proper degree and are prepared for delivery. After their inspection of the plant they were entertained in the club rooms, where informal exercises were conducted.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS MAY CAUSE LOSS OF EYES

Edward Ellermyer, a well-known resident of Kittanning, may lose the sight of both eyes as the outcome of attending the Chrysanthemum show in Pittsburgh. While on the way home from the display November 9, a cinder blew into Mr. Ellermyer's right eye. Inside of ten days the sight of that optic was destroyed entirely. According to Dr. C. J. Jessop, who accompanied the unfortunate man to Pittsburgh today to consult specialists, poison from the chrysanthemums no doubt caused the trouble. Ellermyer had been handling these flowers while at the show. He rubbed both eyes to bring relief from the cinder. This caused inflammation. There is probability of his losing the left eye also.

CHURCH'S DUTY IN THE FAR EAST

Two Speakers Tell of Work in Christianizing the Orient.

NEEDS IN HONOLULU DISTRICT

By a singular coincidence last night at two church meetings prominent speakers discussed the duties of the Christian people of America respecting the religious development of the country's new possessions. At the dinner of the Church club of the diocese of Pittsburgh, the Rt. Rev. Henry B. Restarick, bishop of Honolulu, told of the needs of the missionaries in the orient and the isles of the South Seas, while the Rev. Austen K. DeBlois of Chicago spoke of America's commercial, intellectual and religious advancement at the dinner given in the Union club by the Baptist Social union. Both speakers followed the same line of argument and offered the same suggestions for the promotion of Christian welfare.

The Church club, composed of prominent members of the Protestant Episcopal denomination, held its meeting in the Hotel Duquesne. Bishop Restarick is here in the interest of a new mission school which he expects to establish in Honolulu and recently had a conference with President Roosevelt respecting conditions in Hawaii. He said in part:

"The emancipation of women from the pagan ideas of marriage is one of the greatest works for good which is being accomplished by the church in Honolulu. Oriental women who have become Christianized no longer submit willingly to the old custom of buying and selling wives. There are numerous instances where Chinese women have been converted to Christianity and gave the first $25 they earned toward assisting the mission schools in China. It is asserted that this work of the church has caused trouble. This is true. It will cause more trouble, but oppressed women are being liberated from the thralldom of something worse than slavery, and opposition is to be expected."

Bishop Restarick described the country in minute detail. He said that the Chinese made good residents and proved themselves an industrious and law-abiding element of the population. The Protestant Episcopal church, he said, leads all denominations in mission work on the islands.

At the meeting of the Baptists Mr. DeBlois declared that the wonderful progress which had been made in commerce and territorial advancement by the United States called for similar aggression in the mission field. Covers were laid for 110 guests, more than half being women. Prof. E. Parker Johnston read Eugene Field's poem, "The Werewolf," and the guests were entertained by a choir composed of Mrs. E. N. Hassler, Mrs. Ralph Bailey, D. A. McCarthy, E. N. Hassler and John Q. Everson.

P. J. DONAHOE DROPPED FROM SELECT COUNCIL

Court Writ of Ouster Is Served Upon the City Clerk.

The name of Peter J. Donahoe of the Fourth ward, was stricken from the roll of select council yesterday by City Clerk E. W. Hassler. Mr. Hassler yesterday received a copy of the court writ ousting Donahoe from his seat. The writ was presented by John S. Weller, attorney against Donahoe. The ousting of Donahoe leaves another vacancy in select council to be filled at the February election.

Unlike James W. Piatt, of the Second ward, Donahoe cannot be a candidate in February. Piatt has declared his intention of moving back into the Second ward and running for select council again in February. He can do this, as the new charter does not designate any specified time for residence in a ward previous to a member's election.

Donahoe's case is different, as he was ousted because he had not been a resident of the city for five years previous to his election as required, by the new charter.

W. E. Sankey's name is still on the roll of select council, as he has not resigned, although he has moved out of the city and has announced that he will not serve the remainder of his term.

ANTI-INSURANCE CAMPAIGN IS ON

Underwriters Understood John B. Larkin Had Misrepresented Pink Slip Situation.

CONTROLLER WAS MISQUOTED

Controller John B. Larkin believes the city should cease carrying fire insurance on municipal property. He holds that the premiums paid far exceed the reimbursements for losses, and cites a recent instance at Marshalsea. The boiler house was damaged $2,400 by fire, but the insurance companies refused to allow more than $485. The city solicitor now has the matter under advisement and Charity Director James W. Clark favors canceling the $300,000 insurance on the Marshalsea property.

The companies base their action on an agreement with the city, whereby, in consideration of reduced premiums, the Marshalsea buildings were to be insured for $80,000, and the companies were to be liable up to that amount or for 80 per cent of the damage below that sum. The boiler house was worth $25,000, but had been insured for about $4,000 or 16 per cent of the value and the companies, therefore, refused to settle on the 80 per cent basis.

Insurance men were surprised to see Controller Larkin quoted as saying that the water supply improvements had been completed in the downtown district, but that the "pink-slip charge" added to insurance premiums was still in force. Mr. Larkin was quoted incorrectly. He said the improvements were "not" completed. After hearing this explanation, Fire Marshal William D. McGill said:

"I thought Mr. Larkin had been misquoted, for the thousands of persons who see the water pipe in the gutter in Wood street know that the improvements in the congested district have not been completed. The insurance underwriters are business men, alive to the interests of their companies, and as soon as the improvements are completed the pink slip will come off. All that is necessary to abolish it is for Director Bigelow to notify this office that the improvements are completed. They will then be inspected, which need not require more than a day, and if they are found to be according to the ordinance, the pink slip charge will be taken off."

On October 26, 1902, the board of fire underwriters of Allegheny county passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, By the board of fire underwriters of Allegheny county, That when the city of Pittsburgh shall have completed the work of the changes and improvements for the better supply and distribution of water in that part of the city known as the 'congested district,' according to the sense and requirements of the ordinance introduced into both branches of councils on Monday, October 13, 1902, the penalty for inadequate water mains and fire hydrants, known as the 'pink slip' charge, will be repealed."

BIGELOW WANTS PLENTY OF MONEY FOR PARKS

Director Asks Councils to Make Liberal Appropriation for Next Year.

Director E. M. Bigelow wants councils to give him plenty of money to spend in the parks next year. He regretted yesterday that the parks were not the popular pleasure grounds that they ought to be, and said this was because they were without the features necessary to attract the public. He said he had many schemes to improve the parks and to make them popular resorts if the finance committee of councils would be liberal in making up its appropriations for next year.

He said the parks would be more generally used if there were some attractions there or some form of entertainment. The director proposes to build playgrounds, picnic grounds, promenades; to make the race track a regulation half-mile course, to add kitchens to the shelter houses, and to make other improvements in both Schenley and Highland parks. The director criticised the shelter houses built by the other administration, stating that they were too cheap and poorly constructed.

He said he would not regret it if the shelter houses caught fire and were burned down. Director Bigelow has a large collection of drawings and sketches left with him several years ago by Col. Sibley of Chicago, who laid out the original drives and paths in Schenley park. He intends to make use of Col. Sibley's ideas if councils will give him enough money.

CIGAR CLERKS ARRESTED.

United Cigar Stores Company Employes Taken Into Custody.

Two arrests were made last evening for alleged thievery from the stores of the United Cigar Stores Company. The defendants are Edward Goetzman of No. 1332 Western avenue, Allegheny, and Charles Dugan of Finley and Greenfield avenues. Goetzman is employed at the Allegheny store, at No. 22 Federal street, and Dugan at the store at Fifth avenue and Smithfield street.

It is alleged that about $400 has been lost from each of the stores within the past few weeks. Coupons of different types, cash and various articles are said to have vanished. Marked money was the plan adopted in securing the evidence. Both men are young and recently married. Goetzman was sent here from Rochester, N. Y., a year ago by the company and Dugan has been in the company's employ since August.

Three Men Beaten by One.

There will be at least four men in the party the next time an attempt is made to tear down the fence of John Adams in Birmingham avenue, South Side. Three men made such an attempt last evening, according to Mr. Adams, and all are now in the South Thirteenth street police station with badly bruised faces. They are Sylvester Schenck of St. Thomas street, Philip Burckhardt of Monastery avenue and John Atenbury of Gregory street. A riot call by telephone sent the patrol wagon to the place and they were placed under arrest.

Kennelly Wants Better Behavior.

Edward Kennelly, the newly-appointed inspector on the South Side, paid a visit to the West End police station last evening. In a talk with the night force he said that he had been informed that there had been considerable drinking among the force. This, he said, would not be tolerated. He also requested that there be less friction among the members of the force.

CUBAN BILL GOES TO UPPER BRANCH

After Leisurely Debate It Is Referred to Foreign Relations Committee.

TELLER WILL NOT OBSTRUCT IT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The senate held its longest sitting of the session today, beginning at noon and concluding at 3:15 p. m. The entire time was consumed in debating a motion to refer the Cuban reciprocity bill to the committee on foreign relations. The political line was sharply drawn in the discussion, the Republicans advocating such reference and the Democrats contending that the measure should go to the committee on finance. The motion prevailed without division.

The debate served to bring out some incidental references to the merits of the bill. Mr. Teller took occasion to correct published reports that he has hope of defeating the bill or that he intends unduly to obstruct its consideration.

Messrs. Allison and Aldrich announced their willingness to have the bill go to the foreign relations committee but they united in an expression of opinion that such reference should form no precedent for the reference of revenue bills in the futur. Mr. Allison also denied that there was any purpose of revising the tariff by reciprocity treaties.

The house was in session but five minutes today. After the oath was administered to Claude Kitchin, North Carolina, the house at 12:05 p. m. adjourned until Tuesday.

Bills were introduced in the senate today as follows:

By Mr. Lodge (Mass.), requiring that every postmaster shall reside or have a principal place of business within the delivery of the office to which he is appointed. By Mr. Fairbanks (Ind.), providing for the purchase of a site and the erection of a public building to be used for a department of state, department of justice and a department of commerce and labor, the cost of the building exclusive of site not to exceed $5,000,000. By Mr. Blackburn (Ky.), providing that the secretary of the treasury be authorized to settle the claim of Queen Liliuokalani in full satisfaction.

POLICE ARE STILL ON LOOKOUT FOR THIEVES

Police are looking in vain for the perpetrators of several robberies that have taken place around here recently. Thieves broke into the residence of William Beatty of Grant avenue, Eleventh ward, Allegheny, on Thursday afternoon during the absence of the family and secured jewelry valued at $100. Mrs. William M. Walton, of 219 Woodlawn avenue, Bellevue, sat in her home Thursday night with a loaded revolver awaiting the coming of a burglar that she had seen climing up her front porch. ON FIRE.

An exploding lamp; the clothing in a blaze; a paragraph in the paper telling of horrible suffering from burns. Tragedy in this form moves a man to tears. But for women who are daily being consumed by the smouldering fire of disease there is little sympathy.

Inflammation, with its fierce burning; ulceration, eating into the tissues; the nervous system almost shattered by suffering, these are only part of the daily agonies borne by many a woman.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription puts out the fire of inflammation, heals ulceration, and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves, restores the appetite, and gives refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" is the most reliable put-up medicine offered as a cure for diseases peculiar to women. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Gansevoort, Saratoga Co., N. Y., "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, and I began taking your medicine. After taking first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one vial of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' also used one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Now I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done me."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper bound, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and blackheads. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel fine when I rise in the morning. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets."

Economy Is the Road to Wealth!

Owing to the enormous and rapid development at Ambridge, and the consequent necessity of providing home sites and business locations for immediate use, the owners of ECONOMY have determined to offer for sale during the coming week some of the choicest lots and houses in the old town, and have placed upon the market their plan of FRENCH POINT AND VILLAGE LOTS. This meets the demands of those who must locate near their employment, and who desire to arrange for the erection of homes and business places at once.

By spring the American Bridge Company's plant, the largest of its kind in the world, will be in full operation and employ 8,000 skilled and intelligent men—an assured population of 20,000 people centering around ECONOMY. The old town of ECONOMY will be the resident and the business hub of the great tableland overlooking the Ohio. The choicest manufacturing, business and resident sites are being developed. A branch railroad is now building from the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway to the rear of the village, and upon this branch the Pittsburgh Steel Construction Company are erecting their immense shops.

This sale is the first opportunity given the public for acquiring land and houses in ECONOMY.
The growth and development of Ambridge, which is a part of the same tract, will be more than paralleled at ECONOMY, the chosen center of a future city.

The plan now on sale contains lots suitable for all purposes. The prices and terms will sell these lots to anybody. No lot in the plan can be duplicated elsewhere for the money. The profits to early buyers at Ambridge will be more than equalled by ECONOMY purchasers. All lots are good and all are bargains, but first purchasers will get choice of location. You will make no mistake if you buy any lot in the plan, but you will make a big mistake if you buy none. Salesmen on the Plan.

RATHBONE SEEKS REVENGE ON WOOD

Makes Charges Against Absent Officer Before Senate Committee.

WITNESSES ARE SUMMONED

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Summons issued by the sanitary affairs committee were served tonight on Ernest Lee Conant of the New York law firm of Page & Conant, citing him to appear before the committee tomorrow in connection with the investigation of charges against Brig. Gen. Leonard Wood, made in an effort to prevent his confirmation as major general. The summons was issued at the request of Major Rathbone. Mr. Conant will be expected to give testimony as to the character of the Jai Alai, the alleged gambling establishment which Gen. Wood is charged with having given a 10-year concession to operate in Havana.

Mr. Conant went to Cuba as an attache of the education committee and acted as the legal adviser of Gen. Ludlow in command of the department of Havana. Later he served Gen. Wood in the same capacity.

Another witness summoned tonight is Herbert J. Brown, a newspaper man who was in Cuba during American occupation, who is said to have made an inquiry into the character of the Jai Alai Company.

With reference to the charge that Gov. Gen. Wood had exceeded his authority in giving instructions to the courts, Major Rathbone today at the hearing said that the general had pursued this course in the Cuban postal cases when he (Rathbone) was under prosecution. This was, he said, in violation of article 347, of the penal code of Cuba, and prejudicial to the rights of those under trial. He also charged Gen. Wood with authorizing the use of ex-parte depositions in the postal cases, a proceeding which he asserted is contrary to law and the principles of law, and in this case contrary to instructions given by the secretary of war.

Major Rathbone charged that in accepting gifts from the organization commonly known as Jai Alai, to which Major Rathbone said Gen. Wood had granted a 10-year exclusive concession, Gen. Wood violated the Foraker law, which prohibited the granting of franchises or concessions during the occupation of the island by the American authorities.

Other charges were made against Gen. Wood as follows: With complicity with another army officer in the preparation and publication of an article reflecting discreditably upon an officer who ranked both of them; with causing the auditor of Cuba to violate the law in the treatment of accounts; with utilizing the services of an ex-convict, with whom he was in intimate, personal association, in an effort to displace his superior officer, and by such means to secure to himself the vacancy thus created.

At the afternoon session of the committee Major Rathbone submitted a transcript of the records of the courts of Havana showing that Gen. Wood as military governor gave orders to the courts as to what they should do in the matter of fixing bail and the conduct of some of the other business.

BOTH SIDES CLASP THE OLIVE BRANCH

End of the Big Chicago Motor Strike Is Now but a Few Hours Away.

TRUCE WAS ESTABLISHED

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Only two points prevented a peaceable adjustment of the Chicago City railway strike today. The indications tonight are that these obstacles will be finally overcome and that a settlement will be reached tomorrow. A virtual cessation of hostilities has been declared by both sides.

Mayor Carter H. Harrison and his aldermanic peace commission after laboring for three days, succeeded today in getting a representative of each of the contending parties to meet in conference. Col. E. R. Bliss, general counsel for the City Railroad Company, was authorized by President Hamilton to act for the company and Clarence Darrow, counsel for the union was given authority to act for the strikers. An hour later the two attorneys held a conference in the office of Col. Bliss and discussed a basis of settlement.

The result of the conference will be submitted to the directors of the road tomorrow for final action. The decision of the board of directors will be sent to Mayor Harrison and the aldermanic committee, who will submit it to the executive board of the strikers' union.

After the conference it was learned the company had made two proposals:

First: That the company shall have the right to discipline and discharge its employes as it shall choose, but this shall not be construed to mean that any discrimination is made against union men nor non-union men.

Second: That the company shall formulate the methods by which grievances of its employes shall be adjusted in the future.

In their turn the men submitted a proposal on the routing of cars. This is the matter that will come before the board of directors of the company tomorrow for consideration.

Four of the company's trunk lines were kept open for traffic today, the cars being run under police protection.

BIG TOWS FROM LOUISVILLE.

More Lights Wanted Along the River by Pilots—New One at "Trap."

The last coal to go out on the present rise was staken out yesterday by the Volunteer, Ranger and W. H. Flint. The Ranger and Volunteer's tows will be turned over to the Tom Rees. The Flint's tow was for the steamer G. W. Thomas. These boats will turn back from Safe Harbor. As soon as this water reaches Louisville stamers will be started out with tows for New Orleans. The Boaz and Alice Brown will leave Monday with a tow of 50 barges each. The Sprague will go to Louisville as soon as the water is high enough, and she will take a big tow to New Orleans. The coal fleet which left here this week is due to arrive in Cincinnati tomorrow. The last reports were that all the steamers were doing well.

The lighthouse tender Golden Rod arrived in the harbor yesterday. The lighthouse committee of Harbor No. 25, Capt. Robert Holden, chairman, Capts. Bert Clow and William Blackstock, interviewed A. P. Osborn, lieutenant commander United States navy, and Inspector Fourteenth Lighthouse district. The matter of more lights was considered, and Mr. Osborne promised that as many lights would be put in place as the appropriation allowed. Sixty new lights are needed on the Monongahela river, and the river interests will bring the matter to the congressmen representing the neighboring districts and endeavor to have them use their influence for an appropriation which will cover the lighting of the rivers more satisfactorily. It is said that $100,000 is needed. The present appropriation is $90,000.

The Golden Rod installed a new light at the "trap" on her way up. The new light is on the left shore near the oil refinery on the Coraopolis side of the river, and at a point where the tows must begin to turn over to the right in order to keep in the channel. Another light was asked to be placed at the end of the trap dike on a buoy, and when the water is above 18 feet it is proposed to have the buoy moved to the right-hand shore at a point directly opposite the end of the dike.

DEDICATION OF CHURCH GIVEN BY THE SCHWABS

Tomorrow Will Be a Great Day for Catholics at Braddock. Other Religious Doings.

The new St. Thomas' Roman Catholic church of Braddock will be dedicated tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Schwab, the donors, will be present at the ceremony, which will be in charge of the Rt. Rev. J. F. Regis Canevin, coadjutor bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese, assisted by many priests and probably by bishops from other dioceses. This evening there will be a grand recital on the church pipe organ presented by William L. Mayer of Braddock.

Tomorrow has been chosen by the Hospital Saturday and Sunday association as the day for Christmas offerings for hospital work in Pittsburgh. A collection will be taken in all churches. The total amount given to city infirmaries during the last fiscal year, through the efforts of the association amounted to $8,000. The West Penn and Homeopathic hospitals received the largest contributions.

Tomorrow is known as the world's temperance day, and it will be observed by various churches, Sunday schools and young people's societies over the country. The temperance committee of the general assembly of Presbyterian churches will try to raise $10,000 for the coming year's work.

The Tarentum and Lawrenceville branches of the Y. M. C. A. will celebrate anniversaries tomorrow. At Tarentum there will be appropriate services celebrating the birthday anniversary of the late Capt. J. B. Ford, the founder of the Y. M. C. A. at that place. Ford presented the Tarentum Y. M. C. A. with its building.

At Larenceville the Y. M. C. A. will celebrate its 24th anniversary in the Butler Street Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. J. P. Mariatt, D. D., pastor of the Butler Street church, will deliver the address. In the afternoon F. J. Kress will deliver an address at the association building.

Shanna Cumming, the famous soprano, is the first of several artists whom Prof. Tali Esen Morgan is arranging to have heard free by the people of Pittsburgh. The soprano will sing at the Second Presbyterian church tomorrow morning under Prof. Morgan's direction, aided by a new church chorus. In the afternoon she will sing at the Bijou. A rehearsal will be held at the church this evening, at which time Prof. Morgan will deliver a free lesson on "Sight Reading of Music."

The Rev. William J. Bucher, pastor of the First English Lutheran church of Fifth street, Braddock, will observe the fifth anniversary of his pastorate tomorrow. There is to be a Thanksgiving offering consisting of dress goods, shoes and the like, which will be sent to the orphans' home at Loysville, Pa.

A harvest home song service is to be given at the Shady Avenue Baptist church tomorrow evening.

DAMAGE IN OIL CASE.

O'Day and Partners Get $10,500 in Suit Against Barnsdall and Others.

The jury in the United States circuit court yesterday in the case of Daniel O'Day, Jr., and others against T. N. Barnsdall and others, after being out 28 hours found for the plaintiffs in the sum of $10,500. The action was to recover $75,000 for alleged fraud on the plaintiffs in disposing of certain oil properties.

The sale was made on a basis of $850 per barrel of oil produced each day. Evidence was adduced to show that it was represented that the property was producing at the rate of 402 barrels per day. This estimate, the plaintiffs claimed, was proved to be too high.

The case continued for five days, the jury retiring on Thursday. Yesterday it came into court asking for instructions. Judge Joseph Bufington told the members of the jury the question for them to decide was whether the property had been producing 402 barrels a day when the sale was made. "If you find it was not," continued the court, "you will be warranted in awarding damages."

THREE-YEAR SCALE.

Salespeople Secure Many Signatures to New Working Agreement.

Salespeople's assembly, No. 4907, K. of L. of Pittsburgh, has revised its agreement to read three years instead of one year. This is the first time in the history of the organization that a scale has been signed for over one year, and will mean a great deal in retaining harmony between the employers and the employed.

The clerks were given concessions. Formerly the stores opened at 7:30 in the morning. By the new scale they will open at 8 o'clock. The first five days in the week the stores closed at 6 o'clock, now they close at 5:30 and on Saturday evenings at 8 o'clock instead of 9.

A committee has been appointed to visit the various stores and so far 18 firms have signed the agreement.

Ira Cunningham, Veteran Soldier and Citizen, Killed Himself.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 20.—Ira Cunningham, a notary public of Wampum, last year president of the Roundhead Regimental association, died early this morning at his home from the effects of laudanum, taken with suicidal intent. Three times yesterday he was prevented from shooting himself. His first attempt was made in the general store of his son, when the weapon was wrested from him just as he was placing it to his head. Not long after he was discovered in a second attempt to shoot himself and was again disarmed. He then seemed to repent his act and it was not thought he would make another trial. However, he attempted later to secure a weapon at the office of Constable Jacob Dindinger, but was thwarted.

Mr. Cunningham was 65 years old and served throughout the civil war in Company H of the famous Roundhead regiment. Mental derangement caused by illness was responsible for his suicide. He was a member of the Wampum lodge of Odd Fellows and was for several years district deputy grand master. In replying to the answer of Dr. R. V. Pitcairn to her petition for an allowance, Mrs. Mary Pitcairn, wife of Albert Pitcairn, recently released from Dixmont, charges that his statement that the estate earns but $7,000 is wrong; that it earns 12,000 and that certain stocks are worth more than he states. The Pennsylvania Title and Trust Company's stock inventoried at $150 a share, she says is worth $500. Stock in the American Cotton Packer Company, which is inventoried as worthless, she says is worth $25 per share. The estate is inventoried at $179,564. Andrew Reimer leaves nine pieces of improved property in the Twenty-first ward to his nephew, John W. Reimer; five pieces of improved property in the Nineteenth ward to another nephew, Casper N. Reimer. The residue of a $220,000 estate is left to the two nephews, and a third, George Reimer.

"THE BIG STORE"

We close 6:30 P. M. Saturdays

The authoritative position of the Kaufmann clothing store

There are few retail clothing organizations in this country that exceed "The Big Store" in volume of business and there are none whose standard of merit ranges higher.

The Kaufmann Clothing Store is not merely an adjunct of this business—it's one of its pillars. Now, healthy growth and success do not come by chance. Back of them must be sterling worth and reliability. That's the foundation of "The Big Store's" clothing business. Everybody in the two cities, that is, almost everybody, knows that the Kaufmann Store is rich in good clothing—and everybody knows equally well that it is pre-eminent in value-giving.

The men's clothing stock here is very large and varied enough to meet the requirements of every man, no matter what his proportions, nor how particular he may be. HARVARD IS SURE OF MAKING SCORE

Betting Favors Blue, but Crimson Is Determined to Make Touchdown.

LARGE CROWD IS EXPECTED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 20.—Here in the great stadium, Harvard and Yale will meet tomorrow and upwards of 40,000 persons will gather there to cheer the football warriors on to victory. This is to be the last big game of the season in the east and although on past performances Harvard looks to be outclassed there is no lack of hope that the wearers of the crimson may do the unexpected and at least score against the blue.

Princeton's victory over Yale last Saturday has given confidence to the Harvard players whose coaches for one week past have been reiterating: "Go, thou and do likewise."

Cambridge and Boston tonight are overrun with college students, men from Yale and Harvard, Princeton and Columbia, Pennsylvania and all the smaller colleges in the east. Of them all the champion Princeton team will be the center of attraction at the stadium tomorrow.

Thirteen of the Tigers who defeated Yale have been sent here to view the game, as a reward for their great battle last Saturday.

Though the betting is 3 and 4 to 1 on Yale, the Harvard players have not by any means given themselves up to defeat. They will put up a hard fight from the first sound of the whistle. They had 15 minutes of secret practice this afternoon in the stadium and all of the coaches reappeared with cheerful faces.

Head Coach Cranston stated tonight that the team had shown great improvement since the Dartmouth game in the handling of kicks, especially Capt. Marshall. "But what will count the most," he said, "is that the team is sure to show a desperate fighting spirit in the contest tomorrow."

From Auburndale, six miles away, comes the report that the Yale team has had a good rest nearly all day, indulging only in an hour's signal practice this afternoon.

The teams will line up tomorrow as follows:

Harvard.		Yale.
Clothier	L.E.	Rafferty (Capt.)
Derby	L.T.	Kinney
Lemoyne	L.G.	Batchelder

PREPS. DEFEATED BY TRINITY HALL

Washington Students Win Annual Game at Colosseum, 5 to 0 Before Good Crowd.

LOSERS DO BRILLIANT WORK

The much heavier Trinity Hall eleven of Washington, Pa., won from the Allegheny Preparatory school at the Colosseum yesterday afternoon, 5 to 0. The back field of Trinity Hall pierced the light Prep. line for big gains, while the preps. furnished the sensational playing of the game.

Capt. Jimmy Flemming and Right Halfback Clarence Riter did the bulk of the work for the Preps., which was of a decidedly sensational character. Trinity Hall scored in the first half, and in the second period when it got on the one-yard line strong resistance was met, which resulted in the loss of the ball.

These fashionable prep. schools met at Washington one week ago last Saturday and the Allegheny youngsters won by the lopsided score of 24 to 0. The weather yesterday was all that could be desired for football and it served to bring out a large gathering of the parents and friends of the boys to witness them play their annual game here. There were crowds of well-dressed women in both grandstands and throughout the game they cheered. In the west side grandstand were the girls from the prep. school. They got to the park early and rooted like boys all the time. They had songs which they sang and in each line of some of them was the name of one of the prep. players. Trinity Hall brought a crowd of students and they sat in the east grand stand. In the second half, while the coaches were arguing with the officials, the Trinity Hall boys began to josh the girls on the other side. The girls got back by singing this:

"What's the score!
What's the score!
Dear oh! dear oh!
Twenty-four!"

Capt. Jimmy Fleming.

It was a reminder of the score made at Washington and it put a quietus to the kidding of the boys.

The girls had many opportunities to cheer. Riter, who was the most consistent ground gainer of the game, finding little trouble in getting through the line for big gains and he turned up the only long runs. Flemming, at quarterback, ran the plays like a little general and his tackling was a bright feature. The Trinity back field men did good work and often W. Wagner, an Allegheny boy, was taken from tackle to plunge through the line, which he did in such a manner that did not cause any pleasure to the prep. rooters.

Riter began the game by kicking to Seamons on the 20-yard line. He fumbled, but Eberhart recovered the ball and got back five yards. Trinity Hall immediately got into action. Nearly all the plays were directed against the line, and with Wagner carrying the ball, it soon developed into a procession. Nine first downs got the ball to the Preps.' 12-yard line, where an offside play cost Trinity five yards. On the next play Worcester tackled Jewell behind the line for a one-yard loss. It was Trinity's last down and a goal from placement was attempted. The kick was a failure, and Riter, getting the ball on the five-yard line, ran to midfield before he was tackled.

On the next play Riter gained 14 yards through tackle and end and then another 10 yards on the next play. The ball was taken to the 21-yard line where it was lost on downs. Trinity Hall made seven first downs and Ireland lost the ball by fumbling on the 25-yard line. The preps. made a first down and then tried a quarterback kick. Campbell got it and ran back to the 13-yard line. Line plunges took the ball to the three-yard line, from where Campbell got through for the first and only touchdown. He failed at goal.

The half closed with the ball on Trinity's 24-yard line in the Preps.' possession. It was taken there after the kick-off by the work of the back field men with a 19-yard run by Flemming on a fake pass.

Trinity kicked to Riter for the second period and he carried the ball back to the 24-yard line from the five-yard mark. Tustin got one yard, and the ball was fumbled for a loss. Riter kicked 30 yards. Trinity carried it to the six-yard line and then Campbell placed it on the one-yard line. On the next play the Preps. held and then Worcester was through and caused Ireland to fumble, Flemming securing the ball. Tustin hit the line for five yards. Two first downs got it to the 35-yard line, where Riter ran out of bounds. He was tackled and coming in dropped the ball to the ground and then punted to Tustin. Two attempts resulted in nothing and a goal from field by Riter also failed. The Trinity soon had the ball out of danger and the Preps. only chance for scoring went glimmering. The Preps. had the ball on Trinity's 24-yard line at the close of the game. Line-up:

ALLEGHENY H. S. WINS.

Outplays East Liberty Academy Eleven—Getting Two Touchdowns.

Allegheny high school won over the East Liberty academy team yesterday afternoon at D. C. & A. C. park, 11 to 0. In every part of the game Allegheny's playing was superior to that of East Liberty.

The feature was the work of Chatham for Allegheny, who did good punting for a prep. school player. Allegheny had in two substitutes, Park and Sutton, who played a good game. The tackling of Park was especially good. The strongest defensive game was played by Kammerer at left half. Lacock also made himself a strong factor of the A. H. S. in stopping advances.

For E. L. A. the best man was Seibert, who made several good gains by hurdling, which Allegheny finally stopped.

Allegheny received the ball on the kick-off and by steady bucking advanced it until held for downs near the center of the field. Chatham punted, the ball rolling back of the goal line and Chatham was fast enough to follow his own punt and fall on the ball for the first touchdown. In the second half A. H. S. kicked off, but soon held for downs and rushed the ball over for the second touchdown, Chatham again taking it. Allegheny was rushing the ball at will for the third touchdown when the game was called. Lineup:

WILL BE NO TROUBLE OVER THE OFFICIALS

Wash.-Jeff. and State Practically Agree on That Matter—Big Demand for Tickets.

Manager Tuit of the Wash.-Jeff. team came from Washington last night and turned over to A. G. Pratt the tickets for the Wash.-Jeff. and State game at Exposition park on Thanksgiving day. The grand stand and box tickets arrived from Philadelphia yesterday morning, but as Manager Tuit did not come until late in the afternoon, it was decided not to begin the sale until this morning.

Manager Tuit and a representative of State college tossed for first choice of sections and the W. and J. man called the turn. He selected Sections A and E for the Washington people, and State took Section C. All the other sections will be sold here. Neither team reserved any boxes and it will be a case of first come first served tomorrow when the sale begins.

While here yesterday Manager Tuit had a talk with the railroad officials and arranged to have the first special leave Washington, Pa., at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving day morning. It will make the run to Pittsburgh in one hour. The second football special will leave Washington at 12:30 and arrive in time for the game.

"I cannot understand why there should be any talk about the selection of officials," said Manager Tuit. "We have named Poe and Geer. In the letter that we received from Manager Hoblitzell, we were given to understand that State proposed Dunbar of Lafayette and Teas of University of Pennsylvania. If State has added the names of Poe, Geer and others to the list, as announced by Mr. Aull last night, the officials are practically chosen now for these names appear on our list. I heard that Outland, the former star of U. of P. is coming east to attend the Army-Navy game at Philadelphia the Saturday after Thanksgiving, and will be here next Thursday. They tell me he is a fine official, and I am willing to add his name to our list. All the men suggested by State are capable, but in football there is a great deal of sentiment which comes to the surface on an occasion of this sort. I expect to get another letter from Manager Hoblitzell tomorrow. If it does not settle the matter it may be necessary to talk over the long distance telephone, but we will be ready to announce the officials in a day or two.

FOUGHT OVER OFFICIALS; GAME IS CALLED OFF

The Lyceum and East End A. A. teams will not play today. A dispute arose over the officials and the game was called off.

Indiana Against South Side.

Manager Lichtenberger's Indiana team will be the attraction at Odd Fellows' hall tonight. The South Side boys showed up fine in practice on last Thursday evening and will put up a strong game against Indiana. Manager Lichtenberger says that nothing but a victory will satisfy him. The game will start at 9 o'clock and the preliminary between the South Side Juniors and the Leitheads will be called at 8 o'clock.

QUEER FELLOW IS BOB FITZSIMMONS

In Training He Shows Different Form Almost Every Day and Puzzles Trainers.

GARDNER IS CONFIDENT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Nov. 20.—"I don't know what to make of this fellow, Fitzsimmons," said Billy Britt, brother of the well-known lightweight pugilist, today. "It is an established fact, of course, that he is tricky in the ring and that he feigns all kinds of distress for the purpose of getting in a knockout wallop. I am beginning to think that he goes a step further and carries this dissimulation into his training. Of course I have had lots of opportunities of watching him, because I have been in the quarters frequently to see my brother, Jimmy.

"One day Fitzsimmons performs like a weary old cripple and the next day he is as full of ginger as a young fighter in the first flush of manhood. It was only the other day that someone remarked what an amount of punching Fitzsimmons took from his partners without retaliating. 'He is very different from Jim Corbett,' said Joe Kennedy, as he took a breath between rounds. 'Jim hates to have a sparring partner place a glove on him, while Fitzsimmons gets mad if you don't hammer him good and plenty.'

"The very next day," continued Britt, "it was all very different. Fitzsimmons cut loose at Kennedy and flogged him all over the place. When it was all over someone said to Joe, 'Did the old fellow remind you of Corbett today?'

"'Go away and stop your kidding; my ribs are sore,' said Kennedy. 'That's just the way of it,'" went on Britt. "One day Fitzsimmons looks all dragged out and lives up to his looks. The next day he is a stake horse. I wonder if he isn't having a little fun with us all."

While a good many have made up their minds that Fitzsimmons has trained "once too often," others speculate as Britt is doing on the possibility of the Cornishman relating his conduct so as to cause a poor opinion to prevail in regard to his chances, while a third party ignores all the impressions which Fitzsimmons' appearance and work give rise to and merely keep in view his reputation for doughty deeds within the ropes.

Fitzsimmons has been hampered in his road work by wet weather during the past day or two. He has confined himself to indoor exercise and has also taken a crack at ducks on the marshes between showers. It is felt that he can afford to cut out much of his schedule as he is finely drawn.

Aleck Greggans, who boxes with Gardner, and who professes to know every shift and jolt Fitzsimmons makes use of, is doing his best to impersonate the Cornishman over where Gardner is training. Greggains wears his inflated body protector, and while the man from Clare is burying his firsts in this cushiony device, Greggains attempts left shifts, torpedo thumps, inshoots, lifting punches and all the things which are supposed to be danger signals in a fight with the Cornishman.

This kind of work is imbuing Gardner with confidence. A few days ago someone said jestingly to him, "you'll be all right, George, if you can avoid that left shift. Ruhlin was warned against it, but he became excited and the first thing he knew he thought he was gored by a wild steer." To which Gardner replied: "If Fitzsimmons tries a left shift on me, he'll never know what struck him."

It is very evident from the foregoing that Gardner likes his daily drill with Greggains as it has given him an insight into the best way to furnish a counter irritant for Fitzsimmons' most deadly assault.

A Sensible Buffet

To the practical housewife this buffet commends itself at a glance. The commodious drawers and compartments were each designed for a specific and useful purpose and will be found to be of the exact size and shape most desired.

The general effect is pleasing and artistic and this quality is brought out by the absence of elaborate decoration. The carved pillars and sides add a touch of grace and relieve any suggestion of heaviness. Beyond that the beauty of the wood makes any further ornamentation superfluous.

This buffet comes in mahogany and golden oak, is 56 inches high, 50 inches wide and 20 inches deep. It has a bevel plate mirror 10 inches by 44 inches.

If this particular buffet is not exactly what you have in mind for your dining room, it will at least give you some idea of the character of the stock, and as the variety here is endless, you will have no difficulty in being suited.

The price of this buffet is consistently moderate, as prices always are at

RUNNER UP CHAMPIONSHIP DECIDED THIS AFTERNOON

Kiski Plays Pittsburgh High School for Honor at Friendship Park—Other Games.

The runner up championship for school elevens, which takes in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia, will be decided this afternoon at Friendship park. Pittsburgh High school and Kiski will meet to settle the question as to which team shall be classed second to Shadyside academy.

Kiski will have its usual strong team on the field, and High school will also have its strongest men out, although there is a little gloom in the quarters. Dunc. Worrell, right half, who reported for practice yesterday, was again injured, turning his lame ankle for the second time. He may not be able to play. This puts the third regular man out of the line, and all are strong players, Schmidt and Greer Orr being the others on the hospital list.

Kiski, is in good shape. Coach James had his men out yesterday and set them through an hour's hard work. James got into the practice at half and scored one of the scrubs' three touchdowns. The first team could score but once. James drilled the men in stopping Seanor, the big Kiski tackle, who runs with the ball. Mosse and Maloney will officiate the game. The teams will line up for the kick-off at 3 o'clock as follows:

P. H. S.		Kiski.

C. Harper	R.E.	Hendrick

The Oakland A. C., strengthened by Shadyside academy and East Liberty academy players, will play the Bellevue Outing club this afternoon at Bellevue. These teams met earlier in the season, neither scoring. Oakland has a much stronger team and is confident of wining today. Oakland will line up as follows:

Left end, Hagan; left tackle, Duffy; left guard, Frey; center, Engstrom; right guard, Budd; right tackle, Fisher; right end, Black; quarterback, Bunton; left half, Curran; right half, Bulger; fullback, R. Dowling. Subs—Lynch, Carr, McCandless, White, Ruppel and Dowling.

Pastime A. C. will line up this afternoon against the Ingram team of Ingram. All Pastime players will meet at Fifth street and Liberty avenue at 2 o'clock sharp. The line-up:

Owing to a disagreement as to officials, the East End A. A. has cancelled with the Pittsburgh lyceum and has booked the East End lyceum for today's game at the Colosseum. The kick-off will be at 3 o'clock. Lineup:

EIGHT PER CENT MONEY CHECKED THE ADVANCE

Eastern Stocks Lost Nearly All the Early Gains in the Final Dealings—Local Securities Remained Dull, but Fairly Steady.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

Under the leadership of United States Steel the eastern stock market opened strong yesterday, and retained the gains until early in the afternoon. The unexpected hardening of the rate for money then caused some hesitation, and later in the day when call loans reached 8 per cent, there was a general selling movement in stocks, which wiped out the early gains, and in some instances closed the market at net losses. Two of the larger banks are said to have called of the demand was illustrated by the fact that just before the close one bank loaned $1,000,000 at 8 per cent, the highest rate for the day. After pressing needs had been supplied the rate eased off slightly and closed at 5¾ per cent. One explanation for the calling of loans was that the $7,500,000 City of New York 3½ per cent bonds, which were sold on Thursday, were payable yesterday. The sub-treasury transferred $500,000 currency to San Francisco, but as an offset more than that amount of gold was shipped from London bound for New York.

The buoyancy of the Steel issues was based upon the interpretation placed by the street upon the formal announcement that the operations of the bond conversion syndicate had been brought to an end by the cancellation of the contract by mutual agreement, and that any additional conversions that may take place will be made direct by the corporation. The common stock opened higher at 12 to 12⅛, and the preferred opened ½ higher at 53⅝. The advance in the new bonds was more pronounced, the issue opening higher at 70¾ and rising to 72. The London quotations showed even larger gains, particularly for the preferred stock, which created the impression that the market there had been manipulated. Foreigners, however, were purchasers of the preferred stock, and were also moderate buyers of the railroads. The latter all opened higher, but the recovery in Pennsylvania was smaller than expected in view of the formal statement made by a vice president of the company affirming the policy as outlined in the recent annual report, and also taking a cheerful view of the future. The stock rose ¼ to 115¼, but late in the session reacted to 113¾, and closed with a net loss of 1 per cent for the day. One of the strongest features was Southern Pacific, which advanced to 45⅝, the movement being accompanied by rumors that high-rate bonds were to be refunded, and also that a dividend was within the possibilities of the near future. The gain in the remainder of the list were fractional. The industrial shares were irregular. One of the weakest was Republic Iron and Steel preferred, which broke from 52 to 49. United States Realty and Construction preferred broke from 39 to 36¾. Amalgamated Copper sold off to 38¼, and again declined to 38⅛. Sugar declined from 119 to 117¾. The ease with which the general market sold off in the final dealings was a disappointment to the bulls, who had hoped that a turn in the long lane had appeared. The total sales were 658,0000 shares.

Up until the time when call money rates advanced the feeling was entertained that today's bank statement would be quite favorable. The loss in cash for the week through sub-treasury operations was estimated at less than $700,000, and the preliminary returns of the currency movement did not foreshadow a total loss of as much as $1,000,000. The loans called yesterday afternoon would not figure in today's bank returns, but unless there has been another considerable reduction in aggregate loans, the surplus reserve today may show a decrease. Still, it is not to be denied that high call loan rates make additional engagements of gold for import all the more certain, and that the arrival of gold will ease the eastern money market and tend to maintain that condition until the return of currency from the interior.

The local stock market yesterday held fairly steady to firm, but there was a falling off in the volume of business, and during the greater portion of the day trading was at a standstill. There is so little doing, in fact, that quotations are more or less nominal. National Fire Proofing common was the strongest stock, and closed at 6½, a net gain of ⅜. Westinghouse Electric led in point of dealings, but closed unchanged at 69¼. Crucible Steel preferred was firmer at 29½@29¾, but the common remained unchanged at 4.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Now that all the banks and trust companies, national and state, have been called for a statement of their condition, it is thought that the local money market will rule easier. No increase in trading, and no improvement in prices in the local stock market need be looked for until there is easier money. The fact that the national and state officials selected the same date, November 17, for a report from the institutions under their respective jurisdiction, was a matter of general comment in financial circles. It is probably the first time that this has occurred. It will furnish the opportunity for more nearly arriving at the exact condition of the money market as a whole than on former occasions when several days or several weeks separated the dates at which the two classes of banks made public returns.

The advance of 5 cents a barrel to $1 82 for Pennsylvania oil, and 3 cents a barrel to $1 35 for North Lima oil, which was made yesterday, represent the highest prices of the year. If there were any speculation in the commodity by the general public, old oil men say the market price for Pennsylvania oil would be above $2 a barrel. Current prices are the highest since the spring of 1895, when within less than three weeks the market was carried up from $1 10 to $2 70 and back to $1 97—fluctuations that were too rapid for the boldest speculator and eliminated the latter entirely from the market.

Numerous Pittsburghers will receive their pro rata of the initial dividend declared by the Calumet and Arizona Mining Company on Thursday. The rate is $2 a share, or 20 per cent, and it is payable December 2.

Manufacturers Light and Heat advanced to 27¼, but only 10 shares changed hands. Philadelphia Company rallied to 36 bid, although the street did not regard the October showing as favorable.

On sales of only 120 shares National Fire Proofing common rallied to 6½. There were no transactions in the preferred.

Pittsburgh stock exchange politics is already warming up. There will be two tickets in the field. Charles A. Painter will head one, with S. S. Pinkerton as vice president and John D. Bailey as treasurer. A. J. Lawrence will also head a ticket, although his running mates have not yet been announced. John B. Barbour, Jr., who has regularly filled the office of treasurer, will no doubt be a candidate for re-election on the Lawrence ticket.

The First National bank of New York loaned $1,000,000 at 8 per cent just at the close of the market yesterday.

James Speyer was yesterday elected chairman of the United States Realty and Construction stockholders' committee.

All grades of copper were yesterday reduced ⅛ to ¼ cent a pound.

The statement that the New York banks, notably the National City bank, were accumulating an enormous amount of exchange in anticipation of the coming payment for the Panama canal, was directly responsible for the rise in call money, and the calling in of funds by that institution. It is reported to have withdrawn $15,000,000 from the money market, the proceeds, it is presumed, going into commercial bills, chiefly cotton. The sterling market was strong under this absorption. Most of the bills bought were 60-day drafts, which will about cover the period required for winding up the negotiations for the canal. As a good many of these bills were bought at a considerable lower level there would be a profit in selling in case of delay in the canal negotiations.

FEATURES OF THE DAY

IN PITTSBURGH.

Bank exchanges were $5,459,947, a decrease of $2,342,000.

Money expected to rule easier, now that all banks have been called for statements.

Oil reaches the highest price of the year at $1.82 for Pennsylvania.

Stock market fairly steady. Sales 1,973 shares and $11,000 bonds.

National Fire Proofing common rallied to and closed at 6½.

Crucible Steel preferred advanced, while U. S. Steel preferred declined.

IN WALL STREET.

Total sales for the day, 633,900 shares of stock.

All prices received a setback after a moderate upward movement.

The bond market was irregular in sympathy with reaction in stocks. Total sales, $4,177,000 (par value).

Reaction was caused by advance in call money establishing a fear of an unfavorable bank statement.

Opening transactions in U. S. Steel preferred and bonds were on an enormous scale and advanced 2 points.

At close, however, preferred was 1½ points below Thursday's close and bonds but ¼ point above.

Republic Steel preferred closed at 48¾, low for the day.

MAKING A BATTLE FOR EXPORT TRADE

Manufacturers Seeking the Foreign Markets With More Persistence.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say: Labor organizations are accepting reductions in wages without controversy, which removes one threatening industrial factor, and in several branches of business orders are more numerous, but in the steel industry there is little expectation of liberal buying until 1904. Construction work is decreasing despite optimistic report of more building permits issued last month than a year ago.

Mild weather still checks distribution of merchandise, at this season which is reflected in restriction in business in woolen districts. There is no complaint of traffic congestion which was so frequent at this time last year, railway earnings 6.1 per cent higher than in November to date in 1902 testifying to the increase in facilities.

A week has passed without any further material reduction in iron and steel and sentiment in trade favors stability at the present position. Concessions are not readily obtained, especially on distant deliveries. Much discussion regarding prices of steel rails failed to produce any alteration, and railroads have placed orders for several thousand tons.

Meanwhile foreign markets are sought with more persistence. Machinery and hardware have felt the reaction less thus far than structural material and other heavy shapes, while new shipbuilding plants and machinery for the Panama canal are encouraging features of the future. Minor metals are quiet.

Failures this week were 249 in the United States against 266 last year, and 17 in Canada compared with 24 a year ago.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The Calumet & Arizona Mining Company has declared an initial dividend of 20 per cent, or $2 a share, payable December 2.

The active operation of the old Galena mine at Bingham, the output of which was among the first to invite the attention of the miner to that camp, and which is now numbered among the holdings of the United States Mining Company, is to be resumed at once.

The new tariff on low-grade ores out of Hailey, Idaho, is having a material effect on the output of the Minnie Moore mines, enabling the owners of the bonanza to profitably handle as much as 50,000 tons of rock that has long been upon the dump.

The Grand Central Mining Company of Utah has just paid a regular dividend of 10 cents a share, amounting to $25,000.

W. J. Harris and Wellington S. Harris have just returned to Spokane, Wash., from Pierce City, Idaho, where the latter has been doing considerable work on the Horseshoe group of three claims, all of which carry good values in free milling gold ore. A tunnel on one of the claims has been run 100 feet and the vein, which is about 15 feet wide, has been followed the entire distance. Two crosscuts at the end of the tunnel, one of 50 and the other 100 feet, have been finished. Values have been found in both.

The original Tonopah Mining Company is shipping from its property about $100,000 worth of ore per month, and the Montana Tonopah Company about $50,000. In addition to these corporations there is a lot of work being done in the mines of other companies and those owned by individuals. There is much work in progress under the lease system and many lessees of mines have made money.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Tin advanced 2s 6d in London to £116 12s 6d for spot and £117 17s 6d for futures. Locally, tin was a little firmer, spot closing at $25 40@25 60. Copper remains unsettled here and prices are more or less nominal. Lake Superior is quoted at $12 50@13 00; electrolytic at $12 87½ and casting at $12 75. Copper was 5s 7½d lower in London, with spot quoted at £55 5s and futures at £55. Lead regained 1s 3d of yesterday's loss in London, closing at £11 1s 3d, but remained quiet and unchanged here at $4 25. Spelter declined 2s 6d to £20 12s 6d in London and ruled easy in the local market at $5 62½. Iron closed at 48s 6d in Glasgow and at 42s 9d in Middlesboro. Locally iron was quiet. WALL STREET BULLS AGAIN DISAPPOINTED

Auspicious Opening Followed by Realizing and Bearish Activity.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

The Herald this (Saturday) morning says: The course of the stock market yesterday was highly disappointing to the increasing element in Wall street which had figured that upon technical conditions, if nothing else, the market was entitled to a further recovery. Under the influence of higher London quotations growing out of the favorable reception of the abandonment of the United States Steel Corporation's stock commission scheme, the market opened steady and animated, showing a broadening tendency and an improvement of speculative sentiment. Prices improved all along the line, but apparently the first sign of awakening interest was used for the purpose of realizing by over anxious traders and by bears to put out fresh short lines.

The news developments of the day, aside from those in the money market, were of a generally favorable character, or were so interpreted, but the chief influencing factors arose rather from the happenings of the previous day than from those of yesterday. This was particularly true in the easy dealings of the abrogation of the syndicate contract under which the steel corporation suspended the conversion of preferred stock for bonds. This and the active manipulation in Southern Pacific was the chief factor in influencing the easy advance. In this respect the market was merely a continuance of the preceding day's session. The sharp advance in call money entirely changed the character of the market.

POULTRY MARKET SLOW: TURKEY SUPPLY DECLINES

Sauer Kraut Has Good Demand. Eggs and Butter Are Strong. Cheese Is Weak.

The poultry market is slow, as is usual about a week before a big holiday. Turkeys are scarce but it is doubtful what the supply here will be next week. Three steamers will arrive from down-river ports early next week, and it is expected that each will bring a load of turkeys. A few were brought up on the Greenwood yesterday. The indications are that turkeys will be scarce and lean. Chickens were in light demand yesterday.

Sauer kraut is leading the groceries in the standpoint of demand. The price is $6.25 a cask, and the market is strong. There was a good demand for tomatoes, beans and rice. Flour is firm, and the price will probably be advanced. Strictly fresh eggs and butter have a firm market, while cheese was inclined to be weak. Eggs advanced in price, and dealers are asking a little less for cheese.

The produce market was fair yesterday. Tomatoes, chip, are about done and Florida tomatoes are expected to be on the market soon. Kalamazoo celery and fresh lima beans are also nearly out of the market. There is plenty of Ohio celery. Tropical and domestic fruits and nuts are moving slowly.

No changes in quotations were made in the hay and grain prices and the market continues firm.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Receipts bulletined yesterday: Pennsylvania lines, 7 cars oats, 7 corn, 1 hay and [illegible] rye; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, 3 hay, 1 straw, 1 husk; Pittsburgh & Western, 6 hay and 3 oats.

COLLINS AVENUE LOTS PURCHASED

John P. Kleman Secures Site for Five Story Hotel in East Liberty.

FIFTH AVENUE SALE DENIED

The Joseph Maibach property, 30x33 feet, at the southeast corner of Collins avenue and Ursina street, Nineteenth ward, has been purchased by John P. Kleman, the hotel man, for about $15,000. Mr. Kleman also has secured a long-time option on the adjoining lot, 25x42 feet, which is held at $15,000 also. The Maibach lot is improved with a two-story frame building, and a similar structure stands on the larger lot. Owing to the fact that a newspaper has a four years' lease on the latter property, possession cannot be secured at present.

Mr. Kleman now owns the five-story hotel, 28x80 feet, facing in Penn avenue at the corner of Collins avenue. Separating this lot from the properties just bought is a 15-foot alley under which is a subway leading to a liquor vault under the adjoining lot. As soon as possession of both lots can be secured Mr. Kleman will build a five-story building on them to match the hotel building at the corner and connect the two structures by an archway over the alley. This will give him the largest hotel in East Liberty. It will also make the fourth new building in Collins avenue this year, the others being the four-story warehouse of the Pittsburgh Upholstering Company and the Midland hotel at the Broad street corner, and the new building to go up on the Bennett lot across the street.

Rumor of Big Sale Denied.

A story was current on the street yesterday that the property at No. 225 Fifth avenue occupied by Roberts' jewelry store had been sold for $300,000. The lot measures 20x120 feet and is owned by the heirs of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Rush, who live in Philadelphia. Several weeks ago they visited Pittsburgh and one or more offers of $200,000 were made for the property, but no deal was effected, nor has any sale been made now, according to A. Leggate & Son, who have been agents for the property 12 years.

Three brick houses on lot 40x84 feet facing on the north side of Locust street near Chestnut street, Sixth ward, have been sold for $22,000. The property belonged to John A. Roese of Monaca and was bought by W. A. Summons.

Thomas C. Lazear and Charles P. Orr have sold to J. T. Kell a property 95x150 feet on Alder street, Twentieth ward, for $14,850. The lot is at the corner of Hector alley and adjoins other holdings of the buyer.

Novel Railroad Realty Deal.

Real estate men as well as railroad officials are greatly interested in the outcome of a suit which will be tried in common pleas court No. 2 in about two weeks. The trouble arose when the Pittsburgh, Carnegie & Western Railroad Co. attempted to take from Elva Rollins a property 20x102.5 feet at 63 First avenue between Redoubt alley and Ferry street by reason of having absorbed the old Pittsburgh & Mansfield railroad, which had bought a right-of-way through the lot. Mrs. Rollins bought the property in 1897 from William F. Aul for $9,200 and has since spent about $4,000 in repairs. The property is now valued at $15,000. In October she filed a bill against the Wabash to restrain that railroad from taking the property without paying her for it, as she states that when she bought the lot it was represented to her that the Pittsburgh & Mansfield railroad was going out of existence and had no further use for the property. She also was ignorant, it is claimed, that the former owner was acting as trustee for the old railroad. The case is said to be the only one of its kind ever filed in Pennsylvania. If the Wabash wins the suit Mrs. Collins will receive nothing for her property. If the railroad loses the case it must purchase the property outright or get it by condemnation proceedings, as it has others in the neighborhood.

House for $10,000.

Jacob R. Burkle of Mt. Jackson, Va., sold to Mrs. Ellen Burkle a residence property, 30x120 feet, at the northeast corner of Bennett street and Murtland avenue, Twenty-first ward, for $10,000.

Allegheny: A. Leggate & Son sold for Anton Giamser to Joseph La Spada a vacant property, 42x162 feet, on the north side of East Ohio street adjoining the Allegheny city basin land and extending back to the Troy Hill road, Eighth ward, Allegheny, for $3,150.

Oakland: Harger & Beck sold for the Andrew Cella estate to William Robinson a lot 45x82 feet in Cable place, Fourteenth ward, for $2,300.

Tioga street: Jane Zollinger sold to Frank Lawyer an improved lot, 61x132 feet, at the northwest corner of Tioga and Cora streets, Thirty-seventh ward, for $5,800.

Belmar place: Mrs. Jane Clark sold to Henry H. Bauer an improved lot, 25x92 feet, on the south side of Hermitage street, Twenty-first ward, for $4,300.

Tacoma street: Charles L. Zollinger sold to Jacob Neff an improved lot, 37.5x132 feet, on the south side of Tacoma street, near Rosedale street, Thirty-seventh ward, for $2,500.

Bingham street: Robert Houlden sold to Ferdinand Miller an improved lot, 20.5x100 feet, on the south side of Bingham street, Twenty-eighth ward, for $4,000.

Bigelow street: John W. Frey sold to John R. New a lot 50x101 feet on the north side of Bigelow street near Frank street, Twenty-third ward, for $1,100.

Four building permits were issued yesterday, all for alterations to cost a total of $2,085.

Transfers Recorded.

GRAINS WERE HIGHER AT CLOSE OF MARKET

Big Decrease in Contract Stock of Wheat Caused Advance in Price at Chicago.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—The demand for December wheat from short interests was extremely urgent owing to the critical situation in the northwest and with but small offerings the market ruled strong throughout the entire day. The sentiment was bullish from the start, higher cables and smaller receipts in the northwest being incentives that brought out a good demand with the opening sales. On an advance there was selling to secure profits and some sales for short account which resulted in the market easing off slightly at times, although the tendency was constantly toward a higher level. The report of a big decrease in the stock at Duluth for the week was an added cause of anxiety to the shorts who are beginning to fear they will experience considerable difficulty in securing wheat to apply on December contracts. A private estimate showing a greatly reduced crop in the northwest was also a bull factor. The strength in December helped May, but that month did not show as much advance as the nearby delivery. Primary receipts were 1,045,300 bushels, against 1,112,100 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 783 cars, against 888 cars last week and 904 cars a year ago.

Corn for December delivery was especially strong owing to a scarcity of offerings, while at the same time there was a good demand from shorts throughout the day. Strength in wheat, small receipts and an improvement in the cash demand were factors in creating a strong situation. Local receipts were 109 cars with five of contract grade.

Oats advanced sharply on buying by a leading bull, which was accompanied by large purchases for short account. The strength in other grains and a better cash demand helped in the advance. Local receipts were 150 cars.

Provisions were a shade easier at the start owing to a decline of from 5 to 10c in the price of hogs at the yards. There was some buying of lard for foreign account, but selling orders from packers were in larger volume than buying from all other sources and prevented the market from responding to the advance in grains. The close was about steady with January pork at 5@7½c higher at $11 57@11 60; lard and ribs were each 2½c lower at $6 70 and $6 15.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 100 cars; corn, 125 cars; oats, 160 cars; hogs, 16,000 head.

PRIEST'S FATHER WARNED BY A. B. C.

Gang of Cutthroats Send Word by Letter That He Must Not Talk.

NEW YORK POLICE BAFFLED

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Another mysterious "A. B. C." letter, apparently from the same source as the one received by Civil Justice George F. Roesch, the friend of Father Giuseppe Cirringione, was received this afternoon by Antonio Cirringione, father of the Williamsbridge priest. The letter was in Italian, the same handwriting as the one received by Judge Roesch, and a literal translation follows:

"Antonio Cirringione—no more exclamations. Any more you lose your life, same as this made to Judge Roesch. Saved your life, now will be against you. (Signed) "A. B. C."

The letter was written on cheap white paper with straight watermark lines. The elder Cirringione at once sent the letter to Judge Roesch, who turned it over to the police. Judge Roesch said this afternoon that the father and sister of the priest are almost hysterical with fear for their own lives as well as for that of Father Cirringione.

Declaring that he would labor unceasingly to find the men who kidnaped him, regardless of police protestation, Father Cirringione arranged this afternoon to leave St. Vincent's hospital, where he has been a patient since he was set at liberty, and go to the home of his father.

Father Cirringione intended to leave the hospital today, but late this afternoon Dr. O'Rourke decided that it was advisable for the priest to remain tonight at the institution and return to his home tomorrow.

"I wish to rest today and tomorrow in order to be able to celebrate mass in my church in Williamsbridge on Sunday," said the priest this afternoon. "After that there shall be no rest for me until I have found the men who kidnaped me after writing the blackmailing letters. I have absolutely no fear for myself and do not care whether the police guard me or not.

"I believe publicity is my best protection. After the stories in the newspapers, no one would dare touch me now. I shall devote every energy to running down the gang of blackmailers, and I believe I shall succeed."

PENNSY WILL ADD ANOTHER PITTSBURGH LIMITED TRAIN

The fall schedule of the Pennsylvania railroad, Pittsburgh division, will show three new through trains, the quickening of several Greensburg trains, the quickening of two Pitcairn trains to Stewart, the addition of a Sunday Southwest branch train and changes in time of 79 other trains. The most important of the through trains will be No. 29, which will be a companion train to No. 16, the Pittsburgh limited. This train will take the place of No. 19, which will after November 29, when the schedule goes into effect, run only from Philadelphia. No. 29 will leave New York at about 10:15 p. m. and arrive at Pittsburgh at 9 a. m. It will practically be as fast as the Pittsburgh limited, and will carry the same equipment, in addition to a diner or perhaps two diners, which will be taken on at Altoona. The train will not touch at Philadelphia, going through the subway at North Philadelphia (Germantown Junction). It is due there at 12:04, Harrisburg at 2:41, Altoona at 5:55, East Liberty at 8:49 and Pittsburgh at 9 a. m.

No. 19 instead of running from New York to Pittsburgh and arriving here at 8:30 a. m., will leave Philadelphia at 11:05 and arrive here at 8 a. m. Instead of being run in three or four sections the express business will be handled by a new train, which will arrive here at 8:30. This is a non-scheduled train, however.

The next train of importance will be known as the day Philadelphia flyer, leaving here at 12:01 noon, and arriving at Philadelphia at 9:28 p. m. Close connection will be made with a Philadelphia-New York train. The train will be known as No. 24, and will reach intermediate points as follows: East Liberty 12:21, Greensburg 12:56, Johnstown 2:06, Altoona 3:20, Harrisburg 6:45. Its equipment will consist of a postal car, combined baggage, coaches, as required, a diner and a chair car.

No. 100, now a local to Greensburg, will run as an express to that point, arriving at Fairchance at 11:25 instead of 11:55. It will leave here at 8:45. In order to supply a local train the 9 p. m. Pitcairn accommodation will leave here at 8:40. Two Pitcairn trains will also be run to Stewart instead of making their terminal point at the former place. They are the trains leaving here at 6:05 and 6:15 a. m.

No. 34, which now runs as a local from Pitcairn to Altoona, will be run as an express to Greensburg, arriving there 15 minutes in advance of the present schedule. It will leave here at the same time, 12:45, and arrive in Altoona at the same time.

A Sunday train will be added on the Southwest branch to leave Uniontown at 7:07 a. m. and arriving at Greensburg in time to connect with through trains east and west. Returning it will leave Greensburgh at 6:05.

The express and mail business of No. 4, leaving here at 9 p. m., will hereafter be handled as far as Harrisburg by a new train to be known as No. 36, which will leave here at 8:55. Its schedule will be faster than that of No. 4.

Freezing Out a Town.

With such a dogged persistency have the citizens of Frazeysburg, O., gone after the Panhandle railroad that no less than 76 suits are now pending against that company for fast running through the village. The suits will aggregate about $4,000. The legal department has been considerably annoyed by the bobbing up of these suits, and the operating department has likewise suffered. In retaliation orders have been issued that all company lights in the village will be removed and the threat has been made that if the town is not good all but one local train a day will discontinue to make stops at Frazeysburg.

Rate Men Here.

Representatives of all of the territorial passenger associations to the number of about 30, began a two-day session yesterday at the Schenley hotel to discuss the issuance of a new joint rate sheet. One of the objects is to revise the mailing list and considerably reduce it, thus saving expense. While the business is purely of a routine nature it is considered of great importance to the passenger departments of all railroads.

Railroad Notes.

W. O. Collins has been made traveling passenger agent of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, with headquarters at Hamilton.

T. S. Rattle, assistant general freight agent of the Northwestern, is in the city.

W. J. McClean has been appointed New England agent of the Illinois Central, vice J. C. Clair, transferred. F. S. Bishop succeeds Mr. McClean as general eastern passenger agent at New York.

E. A. Ford, general passenger agent, and F. R. Eshelman, advertising agent of the Pennsylvania lines, returned yesterday from Washington, where they attended the semi-annual meeting of the Pennsylvania system passenger officials. The next meeting will be held early in the spring in St. Louis.

The report that a union station will be built in Youngstown has been revived in that city. General Superintendent Storrs of the Lake Shore recently held a conference there with General Superintendent Stuart of the Erie in regard to the matter. It is said that the Baltimore & Ohio and Pennsylvania as well as the Lake Erie will join in the deal.

OIL IS NOW 5 CENTS NEARER TO ANTICIPATED $2 MARK

The credit balance market was given a very generous boost yesterday, the largest for any single day since the late advance began.

When the purchasing agencies opened in the morning new quotations for all grades were posted. Pennsylvania was advanced from $1 77 to $1 82, North Lima from $1 32 to $1 35, South Lima and Indiana from $1 27 to $1 30. Producers have taken new hope and are now again talking $2 oil by the incoming of the new year. All agree that the present is a good market but still too low when the cost of finding new production is taken into account. In nearly all of the lower southwest district it is expensive drilling and machinery and supplies are very high. In the deep sand territory the average size of the new wells is growing smaller each week, and even those that come in above the average decline rapidly and find a place in the pumper list.

The efforts to discover new territory have brought forth nothing but congested pools or small extensions to the old fields. Operators have not given up all hope of finding new producing territory, but if any is to be revealed it has yet to be located.

New test wells in the vicinity of the producer on the Leight farm, north of Undercliffe, Allegheny county, are coming and will not fail to attract the attention of local operators. About a month ago the American Natural Gas Company drilled in a test on the Mary A. Leight farm and got a producer that started at gusher speed. Holders of leases in the vicinity of the gusher lost no time in starting new work and it is these wells that are now coming to the front. The American Natural Gas Company has drilled in its test on the Wertz farm and it produced 75 barrels the first 12 hours after the sand was tapped.

In the same locality, the McCafferty Oil & Gas Company has drilled in its test on the Zimmerman farm and the well made a 10-barrel flow as soon as the pay was drilled into. It was then shut down to move back the boiler. It will no doubt make a good producer.

Out at Imperial, in this county, John M. Patterson has drilled in a test on the Martin Logan farm and since giving it a shot has a show for a 25 or 30-barrel producer in the 30-foot sand. This location is in advance of previous developments and makes room for a number of wells to the northeast. Mr. Patterson now has about a dozen producing wells in the Imperial district. None were of the gusher kind, but the wells producing from the 30-foot possess good lasting qualities.

On the west side of the Pine Grove extension, in Wetzel county, W. Va., the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its test on the Pittman-Yeater farm through the sand and the well produced 30 barrels the first 24 hours. In the same district the South Penn is drilling in the stray sand at its No. 8 on the Jesse Shuman farm, but is not deep enough for the pay. On the east side of the Folsom district, in Harrison county, the same company has drilled its No. 4 on the W. P. Dye farm 50 feet into the stray and has but a small show of oil.

In the Fallen Timber Run district, Wetzel county, the Trees Oil Company & Brast Bros. have given their test on the Joseph Morris farm a shot and the well produced 45 barrels the ensuing 24 hours from the Big Injun sand.

In the old Elk Fork district, Tyler county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its test on the Mary Staley farm through the Keener and developed only a small show of oil. It will be shot and may make a small pumper. In the Ankrom district, Tyler county, the same company has drilled its No. 3 on the John Seckman farm through the Big Injun and found that formation barren. It is now drilling to the Gordon.

In the Fish Creek district, Marshall county, the South Penn Company has drilled its test on the F. E. Wyatt farm into the Big Injun sand and has a show for a small pumper from that level.

In the Wallace district, Harrison county, the Delmar Oil Company has completed its test on the Floyd A. Lyons farm and has a 20-barrel producer in the Gordon.

On the west side of the Pine Grove field, in Wetzel county, the Philadelphia Company has drilled its test on the J. E. Snyder farm into the Big Injun sand and has a gasser. The same company has completed a test on the R. Barr farm and has a very good gasser in the Gordon formation.

In the Wolf Creek district, on the Ohio side, in Washington county, Charles Cameron's No. 13 on the Henry L. Pugh farm is holding up at 60 barrels a day. In the same district, J. A. Henne has completed No. 30 on the John Lightner farm and has a show for a 20-barrel well. A. A. Cameron has drilled his No. 9 on the J. F. Reed farm through the sand and has a show for a very light pumper. In the Trail Run district, Monroe county, the Pure Oil Company has drilled its test on the Henry Dougherty farm through the Berea grit and has a duster.

CAMPBELL'S

Warm Winter Waists

LADIES' NEW FLANNEL WAISTS. Charming waists for $1.00. They are made of warm flannel, quite plain, with pleats in front and back—black, navy and garnet, with so many good points that every woman will want one for cold weather wear.

LADIES' FRENCH FLANNEL WAISTS. An impressive line of these desirable winter garments with pleats in back and front and a separate stock of the same material as a collar. They come in black, navy and blue. Prices $2.00.

LADIES' SWELL WINTER WAISTS. Good reasons for the constant crowd thronging round the table where we display our Ladies' $2.50 winter waists. Granite cloths, figured mohairs and fancy striped wool materials are the textiles. Some of them come in plain colors, such as black, garnet and tan. Others are handsomely dotted on black and navy grounds. A very charming double-breasted effect is imparted to some of them by two rows of pearl buttons. Others have a single row of velvet-covered buttons. Fancy stocks to match.

MENS GLOVES

Watch the men as they pass by on the street. Two out of three wear gloves these days. The third man doesn't look very dressy without them—kind'er forlorn.

Fit yourself out with handsome New Gloves at our Glove Counter.

—Men's Scotch wool Gloves for 25c and 50c.

—Men's Astrahkan Gloves with Jersey or kid palms, fleece-lined. Prices 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $1.50.

—Men's Golf Gloves—Plain and fancy wool or mercerized. Prices 50c and 75c.

—Men's Street Gloves in heavy cape kid, dress kid or maco for $1 and $1.50.

—Men's English Walking Gloves in cape kid for $1.85. Wool-lined ones at $2 and $2.25.

MEN'S MUFFLERS

The man who cares for personal comfort and would guard against colds will have a Muffler at hand to wear winter nights. A new line just opened. Plain white and black silk-brocaded Mufflers, plain Barathea Mufflers and Fancy Silk Mufflers in black, navy, garnet and gray. Prices 50c to $3.

A Candy Treat For 25 Cents

When you buy a pound box of candy of us as a Saturday Night treat for your family you get half a pound of the Finest Mixed Chocolates, and another half pound of Vanilla Nut Caramels, Cream Almonds, Gum Drops, Apricot Jelly, Fig Paste, Fudge, Jelly Strings and New York Bon Bons—about the equal in quantity and quality to the famous 50c confections.

CORSETS, ETC.

To some women the advent of a new corset is an event equal to the appearance of a new star on the theatrical stage. We have just introduced two of them.

The P. D. Corsets newly added to our line are fine imported French Corsets noted for their capacity to impart a graceful form and petite figure. The first cost is large, but they will outwear several domestic corsets. Prices $2, $2.50 and $3.25.

The J. B. Corsets are a new domestic line made on the newest French lines adapted to American figures. They impart the much desired long waist dip hip effect and a strikingly graceful contour. Prices $1 and $1.50.

WARM WINTER HEADWEAR. Tam O'Shanters will have another winter of popularity for children and young girls of the high school age. We have full lines in good colors—likewise some other good things for cold days and frigid nights.
